THE LION OF STOUFFVILLE

Change is in the air for a long established pub restaurant in Stouffville. The Lion, located at 5917 Main Street, changes hands starting on August 18th, and according to new owners Maria and Doug Crosse, people are going to notice a lot of new activities at the 300 seat facility.

Right out of the gate they are hosting a Tragically Hip Viewing party, which at time of writing was over 80% sold out. The evening will include a Flare bartender, Jose Cuervo Margarita promotions and a large screen projection and sound system on the patio for people to watch the historic last concert of the iconic Kingston area band.

"We looked at that date as a great way to meet the people of Stouffville and give those who had not been to the Lion in a while, a chance to try it out under a fresh approach," said Doug Crosse.

Along with Karaoke and sports, there will be trivia nights, rock and roll bingo, paint and cocktail evenings in coming days.

It will also be a place for the community. "We are very committed to outreach and fundraisers will be a big part of what we do," said Maria Crosse.
