16 motorists charge with impaired across region during weekend

A driver allegedly found slumped, unconscious over the steering wheel of a van in Vaughan last Friday night is one of 16 motorists charged with impaired driving-related offences by York Regional Police last weekend.

Police received a call about a Dodge Caravan swerving and nearly hitting other vehicles in the area of Islington Avenue and Hwy. 7 at about 9:40 p.m. Aug. 26, Const.

Andy Pattenden said.

Officers found the van parked in the southbound lanes of Islington Avenue with the driver passed out and slouched over the steering wheel, he said. It took several attempts to wake the driver. A 25-year-old Toronto man has been charged.

In total, 14 men and two women were charged with alcohol-related driving offences from Friday to Sunday.

Nine drivers registered readings of more than twice the legal limit, four were more than 200 mgs and two were more than 300 mgs per 100 millilitres of blood.
