

DeafBlind Ontario hosts Indulge Your Senses fundraiser Sept. 22

BY SAMANTHA MARREN

Join DeafBlind Ontario Services on Thursday, Sept. 22 for the 11th annual Indulge Your Senses fundraising event at the Club at Bond Head.

Throughout this indulgent evening for women, guests will enjoy pampering spa services and wine tasting. Spa treatments include hair styling, makeup application, manicure and hand treatments, massage and reflexology. Local firefighters will also be on hand to lend their support.

New to this year's event is Dinner-in-the-Dark, where guests will be blindfolded during the dining process. By using taste, touch and smell, they will interact and enjoy a three-course gourmet dinner in ways they may not have before, allowing them to better experience their other senses.

Special guest Frank Ferragine, AKA Frankie Flowers of CityLine and Breakfast Television, will emcee this fantastic evening. Fabulous live and silent auctions, a raffle and an incredible beauty product swag bag round out this ultimate girls night out.

Indulge Your Senses, presented by Meridian, raises funds to support residential and specialized services to individuals who are deafblind.

Founded in 1989, DeafBlind Ontario Services is a non-profit organization that helps individuals who are deafblind increase their independence and improve their quality of life through specialized services.

With residential locations and community services programs across the province, their services extend into a wide range of communities in Ontario, including York Region and Simcoe County.
