

Video session pays for Spirit

The Stouffville Spirit watched a video late last week.

It was of the horror variety after head coach Jeff Perrin showed his players how listless they performed in a 5-1 drubbing they absorbed against the visiting St. Michael's Buzzers in their Ontario Junior Hockey League contest last Thursday.

What the players witnessed seemed to work wonders as they did a complete about face in their next outing which resulted in a 4-1 win over the Aurora Tigers at the Stouffville Arena Saturday.

Defenceman Max Novick deposited a pair of early third period power play goals while Stouffville residents Jackson Savery, who played his first game this season after coming off the injured list, and rookie Beau Binnie added singles after Aurora opened the scoring just 50 seconds into the second period.

"We (coaching staff) showed them the lack of compete, the laziness they exhibited. It was embarrassing," Perrin said.

Now 2-1-0-4, the Spirit are scheduled to play a road game against the Kingston Voyageurs Thursday at 7 p.m.

ASSOCIATE FAMILY PROGRAM

◆ Serving all communities in York Region ◆

SEEKING FOSTER FAMILIES

We are looking for Foster Families (Associate Families), living within the York Region area. We require a family that can provide a loving and caring home environment to a child or adult who has an intellectual disability. Experience in Developmental Services is preferred but not necessary.

Associate Families are asked to make a commitment to the person receiving support and are provided with regular relief, tailored training, support and remuneration.

SEEKING RELIEF HOST FAMILIES

We are also in need of Relief Host Families, living within York Region. Our Relief Host Families provide support one weekend/month, allowing for respite relief to our Associate Families. Relief Host Families are provided with tailored training, support and remuneration.

If you are interested in providing a home or weekend support for a child or adult in need, please contact:
