

Everyone loves a deal.

Together with StyleDemocracy, Metroland Media hosts The Warehouse Mall, featuring designer brands at clearance prices Oct. 21-23.

The three-day sale features more than 15 vendors and more than 10,000 products at discount prices.

"People go crazy for good deals," said Amanda Andolina, Metroland event co-ordinator.

The Warehouse Mall features international designer names such as Puma, as well as several local vendors.

Along with designer shoes and clothing, shoppers can also find premium beauty supplies, health and wellness products, outdoor and athletic clothing, home accessories, luggage and jewelry.

For about a decade, the Markham Fairgrounds has been home to the annual Home Show, but as demographics and shopping habits of the area change, shoppers were looking for more of a retail experience.

"The Home Show might be something that's fading," Andolina said. "People were always asking if we were selling products featured in the Home Show. Everyone is looking for a deal."

The timing couldn't be better, as once Thanksgiving is over, many people turn their attention to holiday shopping.

There will also be a food court featuring local food trucks.

Previous StyleDemocracy warehouse sales included top names such as Puma, Tibi, The North Face, Linen Chest and Nordstrom.

CORRECTION

Incorrect numbers

The article, York University campus taking shape, which ran in the Oct. 6 edition, contained incorrect information. The number of students expected to attend the new York University campus in the first year is between 4,000 and 4,500. That number is expected to rise to about 10,000.

We regret the error.

CLARIFICATION

Missing information

In the article, Action on elected regional chair coming soon, MPP says, which ran in the Oct. 6 edition, the following was omitted: Richmond Hill MPP Reza Moridi first introduced a private member's bill to amend the Municipal Act in 2012.

We regret the omission.

TESTUFFED PORK TENDERLOINS

We've been making these for so long, I don't think that I need to explain the original stuffing, but we have a new one too! It is so new that Thomas (my son) hasn't yet committed it to print, but it will be good-to-go on Thursday. Reg. $11.95/lb and featured at

Best way to cook these is to roast them slightly covered for 45-55 minutes at 350°F. 25% OFF AS WELL

Reg. $2.99/100g Featured this week at

Batting clean-up, we'll have our Deli Stuffed Pork Loin Roast. We slow-roast these as well so that they're still moist - I dislike dry - and they will be sliced to order.
