Cheryl Cline-McArthur and Father Dennis Cline are bringing the Confidential Musical Theatre Project to York Region. The musical will be performed without having been previously rehearsed.

Pick of the Week: The Confidential Musical Something unique is coming to York Region on Oct. 28.

The Confidential Musical Theatre Project will make its debut at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and will feature a cast of 17 performers and one musical director.

The catch?

The full length, two-and-a-half-hour musical will be performed without having been previously rehearsed. One hour before show time, the chosen cast will meet for the first time before going out on stage.

Performers interested in taking part previously submitted names, resumes and a video of themselves - without knowing what they were auditioning for. The directorial team then selected the cast and sent each individual a script to prepare their performances on their own.

No formal auditions, rehearsals, costumes, sets or special effects will be used during the show.

The only rule?

They can't stop performing at any time throughout the show, no matter what.

Audiences are invited to indulge in the exciting musical, which will portray genuine acting, singing and even dance performances. The show runs 7 to 10:30 p.m. For more information or to purchase tickets, visit www.confidentialproject.com.
