

Santa Claus is coming to your town

If you're hoping to catch a glimpse of Santa Claus before he makes his rounds on Dec. 25, you're in luck. He's taking time out of his busy schedule to see all the good boys and girls during his annual parades.

NOV. 19 - 1:30 PM KESWICK

Starts at Biscayne Blvd. and the Queensway at 1:30 p.m., follows the Queensway to Metro Road and goes up Simcoe Street and ends at Church Street and the Queensway.

NOV. 19 - 6:30 PM BRADFORD WEST GWILLIMBURY

Professor Day Drive, down Holland Street and onto Simcoe Street. Spectators are encouraged to bring food donations and their letters to Santa, as volunteers will be collecting both items all night long.

NOV 19 - 11 A.M. NEWMARKET

Starts at the corner of Lorne Avenue and Eagle Street, proceeds east on Eagle, then north on Main Street. Ends at Ontario Street.

Remember to bring your non-perishable food items to donate.

NOV. 19 - 6 P.M. RICHMOND HILL

First ever Night Parade:

Begins at William F. Bell Parkway and travels south on Leslie Street, ending at the corner of Leslie Street and Performance Drive (one street south of Via Renzo Drive).

The theme for this year's Parade is The Night Before Christmas.

Representatives from The Liberal will be collecting non-perishable food items and Canada Post letter carriers will collect all letters for Santa.

NOV. 26 - 11 A.M. MARKHAM

North on Main Street Markham from Hwy. 7 to the Markham Museum off 16th Avenue.

These year's theme is a look at more than 150 years of Christmas traditions.

Letters to Santa will be collected by Canada Post on parade.

Download the Christmas Bell app to ring a bell on your phone during the parade.
