

Markham is holding its 32nd annual Festival of Lights on Nov. 25.

5 ways to keep your kids busy on Nov. 25

Looking for ways to keep your kids busy on the Nov. 25 PA day ?

- Towns and cities offer PA day camps at recreation facilities and museums for a fee. The fun includes games, songs, crafts and more. The camps usually provide extended care for an additional fee.
- Check with your local municipality for drop-in activities. Strap on your skates and hit the ice. Get into the swim of things by making a splash at the pool. Stop by your local library and see what's new. Contact your town or city for times and fees.
- See a matinee of The Music Man at the Richmond Hill Centre for the Performing Arts. The theatre is at 10268 Yonge St. in Richmond Hill. For more information, visit rhcentre.ca or call 905-787-8811.
- Create some fun at home. Pull out some board games, make a fort with blankets, do some crafts, put on a play, read some books or pop some popcorn and watch a family-favourite movie.
- Get into the holiday spirit. Markham is holding its 32nd annual Festival of Lights at 6 p.m. at 132 Robinson St. at Markham Road north of Hwy. 7. The event features lighting of a 30-foot Christmas tree, fireworks, horse-drawn wagon rides, street performers and more.
