Pick of the Week: Newmarket Live Nativity Pageant

The story of Christmas comes alive with the annual nativity pageant at Fairy Lake in Newmarket.

The live nativity pageant takes place Dec. 21 to 23, at 7 p.m. and 8 p.m., and one show on Dec. 24 at 7 p.m.

The show, A Journey to Bethlehem presented by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the town of Newmarket, is a family favourite for 29 years.

While the story dates back thousands of years, the annual pageant draws in families from near and far, with an average audience of about 500 to 1,000 per show.

"This is a great opportunity for the community to celebrate the holidays in a beautiful setting," said Newmarket's special events programmer, Deanna Smith.

Not only does the free outdoor show feature a live cast with special appearances by the mayor and councillors, it also features some furry friends - sheep, llama and a donkey.

More than 75 volunteers from the church and community help put on the live show, including lighting, sound, and ushering patrons to the show.

Plan to arrive about 20 minutes early to allow for parking and walking to the performance area since parking at Fairy Lake will be reserved for accessible parking.
