SENIORS FIND FRIENDS FOR HOLIDAYS

TIM KELLY
tkelly@yrmg.com

It is supposed to be the most wonderful time of the year, but for some seniors Christmas can be lonely and a bleak period on the calendar.

While younger people in the community are surrounded by friends and family able to travel and visit with loved ones, some seniors, either through loss or by circumstance, find themselves alone and sometimes far from family members.

That is why Newmarket's the Grandparent Connection, Noble-

ton's Lions Club annual Christmas Dinner for Seniors and the region's Home Instead Senior Care, in their own way, try to help
