

ENHANCEMENTS COMING SOON!

Georgina Transfer Station
Household Hazardous Waste and Recycling Depot
 23068 Warden Avenue, Georgina

To serve you better, York Region will be constructing new features at the Georgina Transfer Station:

- Elevated platform with drop-off bins and a dedicated vehicle unloading area, making it easier for customers to unload materials
- Dedicated road for service vehicles, improving customer experience and on-site traffic flow
- New outbound weigh scale house to improve transaction process for customers exiting the site
- Expanded list of acceptable bulky recyclables including drywall, untreated wood and foam packaging
- Multi-purpose building with household hazardous waste depot and inbound weigh scale house

The Georgina Transfer Station will be open during construction. Please expect delays.

Please check york.ca/wastedepots or call 1-866-665-6752 for updated construction information.

COMMUNITY

Events to light up the season

BREA BARTHOLET
 bbartholet@ymg.com

The countdown to Christmas is getting shorter by the day, but there are still plenty of fun community light displays and events for you and your family to check out.

So pile on your winter jackets, mitts and boots to enjoy a variety of Christmas and holiday-inspired activities that will keep everyone entertained.

- Winter Wonderland, Newmarket Riverwalk Commons, 200 Doug Duncan Drive: This spectacular event in the heart of Newmarket boasts a beautiful light display, running every Friday until Jan. 8 from 6 to 9 p.m. Guests can enjoy free skating on the Tim Hortons skating and water feature. On Saturday and Sunday evening, kids can hop on the Tim Hortons Express train, for a fun ride around the commons. For more information, visit www.newmarket.ca.
- Frozen in Time Ice Sculpture Festival, 115 Hurontario Street, Collingwood: Visit part of Ontario's snow belt to admire the stunning and unique ice sculptures through-
