

Wayne Emmerson New Chair Of York Region

On Dec. 11, former Stouffville mayor Wayne Emmerson was elected chair and CEO of York Region.

"On behalf of the residents and businesses of the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville, I want to applaud Wayne Emmerson on being elected York Region chairman and CEO," said Whitchurch-

Stouffville Mayor Justin Altmann.

"I wish Chairman Emmerson every success and look forward to working with him throughout the 2014-2018 regional council term." Mayor Altmann was also sworn in on Dec. 11 as one of 21 York Region councillors.

New Year Off To Artistic Start

IMAGES 2015 features artwork by graduating students from Stouffville District Secondary School.

On Jan. 8 from 7 to 9 p.m., The Latcham Gallery will host the opening reception for IMAGES 2015, featuring a selection of works by the graduating art class at Stouffville District Secondary School.

The annual event includes paintings, drawings, sculpture and photography and offers some fascinating insights from the perspective of young artists in the community. IMAGES runs from Jan. 8 to 24 and is generously sponsored by Giles Chevrolet, Stouffville Lions Club, Button, Armstrong & Ness; the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville and the Ontario Arts Council.

Visit latchamgallery.ca for details on this and other events, and to register for upcoming art programs.

Technically it was still fall, but Memorial Park in downtown Stouffville was covered in a blanket of snow on Dec. 11, heralding the start of a long winter's driveway clearing. Kate Gilderdale photos

It's A Wrap

Vera Belchebski (left) and her daughter Connie Belchebski of the Imperial Café on Sandiford Dr. mark their retirement by giving Imperial Centre owner Louis Kocancic a delicious bowl of soup in gratitude for a wonderful business partnership. The two women, whose culinary expertise and warmth have made their café extremely popular with local patrons, hung up their aprons for the last time on Dec. 19. Bruce Stapley photo
