

Young At Art

Artistically-inclined students can brush up their skills at The Latcham Gallery's March Break Art Camp Days.

The program will be held March 16 to 20 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily at 6240 Main Street. An experienced art instructor will cover a variety of disciplines, including painting, drawing and collage, and students will take home a finished art work at the end of each session. Art Camp Days is for young artists aged from 4 to 10. Pre-registration is required.

Upcoming gallery events also include a free family art activity from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, April 4 as part of the downtown Easter egg hunt. Spring classes for students include Budding Artists on Saturdays, beginning April 7, and stop-motion classes, which will be held after school on Wednesdays. Art Jam, for 10 to 16-year-olds, will take place after school on Thursdays.

Registration for summer camp at the gallery is under way now. For more information on all programs visit latchamgallery.ca or call 905-642-8954.

The Race Is On

If you're looking for some fun activities for your kids at March break, Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum has the perfect solution.

Amazing Race March Break Camp runs March 16 through 20 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily. Students aged 5 to 12 are invited to 'travel the world' while solving mysteries, conquering roadblocks, getting creative and baking up a storm. Before and after care is also available. To register or find out more, visit townofws.ca/museum or call 905-727-8954 (toll free 1-888-290-0337).

The town is also offering an opportunity for older students, aged 13 to 18, to participate in Amazing Stouffville Race on March 19 from 1 to 4 p.m.

The event gets under way from the leisure centre, and teams of two complete challenges around downtown Stouffville before racing back to the start. Prizes will be awarded to all participants and include a pool party, leisure centre gift cards, laser quest gift cards and more.

Pre-register by March 12 by calling 905-642-PLAY or online at townofws.ca.

Treading The Boards At March Break

Motus O Dance Theatre will perform Petrouchka at Nineteen on the Park on March 21 at 2 p.m. and 6 p.m. The company will also offer young actors theatre camps to students from 6 to 8 and from 9 to 16 at the theatre.

Motus O is offering two young actors theatre camps at Nineteen on the Park during March break.

The senior camp is for ages 9 to 16. Students will be taught all aspects of foundational theatre arts including body movement, script breakdown, voice and stage crafts. They will be led through the process of developing their own scenes.

The junior camp, for ages 6 to 8, will cover performing on stage with lights, costumes and sound effects. Students will learn skills such as acting, dancing, stage combat and singing. At the end of the five day sessions, each group will perform a show at the theatre on the theme 'What kids think'.

Camps run March 16 to 20. For more information call 905-642-PLAY.

Motus O will also present two performances of its popular interpretation of Stravinsky's Petrouchka at the theatre on March 21 at 2 p.m. and 6 p.m.
