

Local Art in the Park

While Whitchurch-Stouffville has always been known for its love of sport, in recent years the community has been quietly building an impressive reputation for arts and culture.

On June 13 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., the Town will host a new and exciting event at Memorial Park: Whitchurch-Stouffville Art in the Park. From paintings and ceramics to jewellery and stained glass, Art in the Park will showcase the work of top-notch local and area artists.

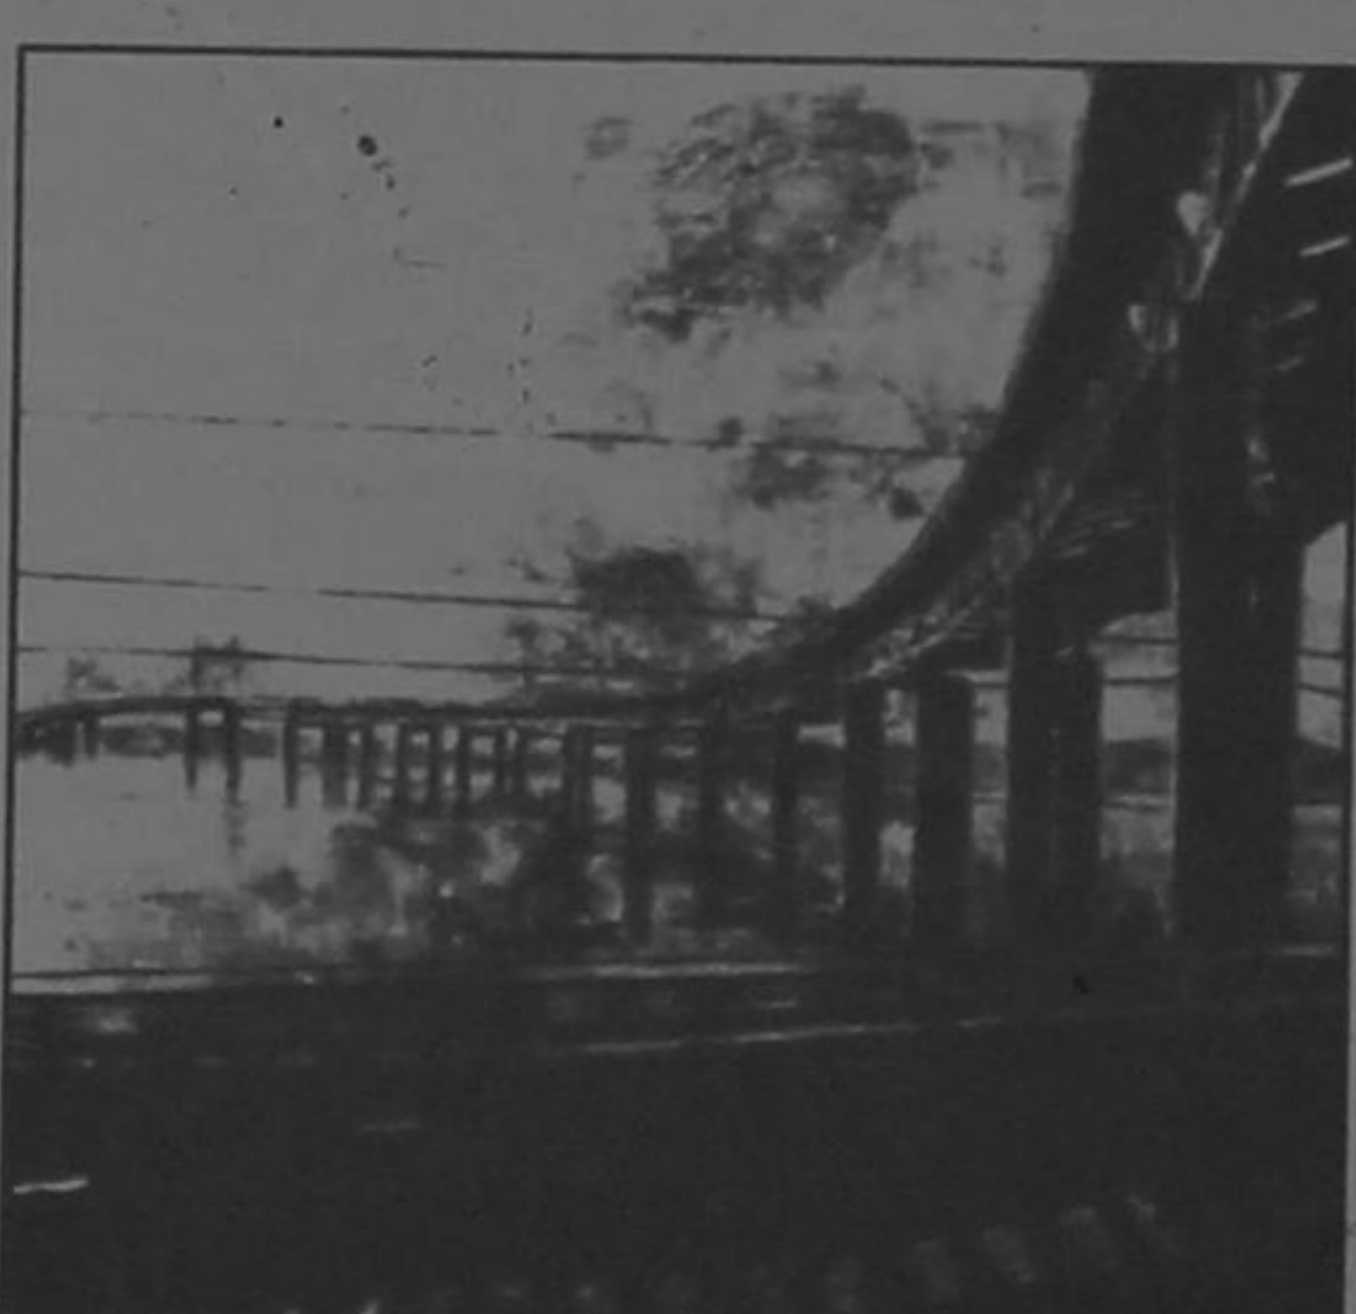

Refreshments will include tasty treats by Kuizin Kuizine, wines from Stouffville's Gallucci Winery, and ales by King Brewery. With an art show and sale, live music, and drop-in activities hosted by The Latcham Gallery, Art in the Park is a great way to spend a spring afternoon with family and friends. Best of all, organizers plan to make it an annual event.

Local artisan Monica Gennero of Beke Design creates her beautiful jewellery from silver and semi-precious stones.

Jill Green's artwork has been displayed at several local venues including The Gallery at Imperial Centre. She studied at the London School of Fashion and Design in London, England for five years.

Stouffville resident Simon Coates holds a Master's degree in Fine Art from the University of Sydney and his work will be featured at Art in the Park on June 13.

Michael Patterson's paintings are held in private collections around the world, including Dubai, Britain, the US and South Africa. He and his family live in Whitchurch-Stouffville.
