

Dynamic Peruvian Vocalist Struts Her Stuff

Patricia Cano showed off her smooth yet intense vocal talents August 18 as part of the Summer Patio Series at 19 on the Park. Inclement weather forced the Peruvian vocalist and her band to perform indoors. The four part series wrapped up August 27 with a performance by the Fitzgeralds, a fiddle and step dance family act

Through the Grape Vine

Gallucci Winery winemaker Thomas Laszlo shows Stouffville Chamber of Commerce executive director Harry Renaud the type of grapes used to make the bottle of Gallucci Baco Noir he is holding. Mr. Laszlo spoke to a Chamber gathering of the origins of wine and the art of winemaking August 20 at the Ninth Line winery.

MPP Announces Age-Friendly Grant

Oak Ridges-Markham MPP Helena Jaczek was on hand to announce the Government of Ontario's $35,000 grant for Age-Friendly community planning at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library August 11. Dr. Jaczek paid tribute to WS YOU 177, a collaborative initiative to bring generations together. Library CEO Carolyn Nordheimer James, along with Brian Puppa and Susan Bosak of the Legacy Project, spoke of how WS YOU 177 has started a broad community dialogue about growing older in Whitchurch-Stouffville.

Caregivers Support Plan Unveiled

Markham-Stouffville Liberal candidate Jane Philpott explains her party's plan to provide financial assistance of up to $12,000 over a six month period for people providing care to seriously ill family members. Also on hand at Dr. Philpott's Downtown Stouffville office for the August 20 media event were Markham-Unionville, Liberal candidate Gu

Jiang (l) and Markham-Thornhill Liberal candidate John McCallum.

"As a health care professional, I understand that people should not have to shoulder the responsibility of caregiving on their own," said Dr. Philpott, who served as Chief of the Department of Family Medicine at Markham-Stouffville Hospital from 2008-14.
