

Stars Come Out for Hockey Night in Stouffville

Hockey stars past and present took to the ice for the fifth annual Hockey Night in Stouffville August 20 at the Stouffville Arena. Playing to a sold out crowd, the Markham team edged Stouffville 12-11. But the real winner was the Markham-Stouffville Hospital's child and adolescent mental health unit, which received a cheque for $88,500. The Markham-Stouffville Girls Hockey Association also received $10,000 from the proceeds.

The action buzzes around Stouffville team goalie Liz Knox, a member of the Canadian Women's team that won the gold medal at the 2011 Winter Universiade.

The Stouffville team included home town hero Keith Acton, who hosted the event, along with local hockey products Will Acton, Sam and Trevor Carrick and Ethan Werek.

Local MP Paul Calandra, who has been involved in the event since it started in 2011, gives souvenir pucks to the crowd.

Toronto Maple Leafs mascot Carlton the Bear was on hand to entertain the crowd.
