

Un-Fair Weather

Cool and damp conditions provided a challenge for organizers and patrons at the Ballantrae Fall Fair September 13. But those who braved the inclement weather enjoyed themselves eating pancakes and hamburgers while the little ones stayed dry inside the Ballantrae Community Centre with games run by Coach Steve in the Tiny Seedlings KIDZONE.

Zoomer Zone

Stouffville's first ever Zoomers' Market offered an array of vendors, services and seminars for active adults aged 45 and up September 13. The event, held on three fronts in Downtown Stouffville, was presented by the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville.

Proceeds went to the Join-In Program, which offers support for low income seniors or families using Town recreation programs.

Saucy Stuff - The Sauce Shack father and son team of Stephen and Tyler Priemer show off their arsenal of culinary enhancements ranging from the heat challenged 'Sauces for Sissies' all the way up to their building burning 'Spontaneous Combustion' mix.

Shutterbugs - Sig and Teresa Kusatz check out some of the photographs on display from the Stouffville Camera Club

Music Therapy - Dr. Amy Clements-Cortes, an assistant professor in the University of Toronto's Faculty of Music, delivered a talk on stimulating the aging mind and body with music.
