

Stouffville Artist to Present New Work

Stouffville artist Tony Voipe presents his latest art show at the Kathleen Gormley MacKay Art Centre Wednesday, Nov. 12 to Sunday, Nov. 16.

This body of work, two years in the making, contrasts the familiar with works that will bring you into another realm. A wing-like tree, arboreal flute-player, and a worker striding over housetops contrast with local landscapes.

The gallery, at 197 Main Street, Unionville, is open every day from 10:15 a.m. to 4 p.m. Free admission and free parking at the rear of the building. The reception is Sunday, Nov. 16 from 12:30 to 4 p.m. and everyone is welcome.

Student Music Scholarship Concert at SDSS

Close to 500 students from eight Whitchurch-Stouffville schools will display their song and dance talents Nov. 21 at 7:30 p.m. when St. James Presbyterian Church hosts the 22nd annual Student Music Scholarship Concert at Stouffville District Secondary School (SDSS).

Schools taking part are St. Mark, St. Brendan, Stouffville Christian, Ballantrae, Wendat Village, Glad Park, Summitview and SDSS.

One student will be selected to receive a $200 scholarship. Previous recipients were Georgina Muir, Clara Jordan, Jocelyn McDowell, Cameron MacKenzie, Kathryne Irwin, Carley MacLean, Lillian Wild, Jennifer Thunem, Kirstie Hembruff, Aaron Clubine, A.J. deBoer, Madeleine Eddy, Colton Carrick and Matthew Euwees.

Over the past 21 years, more than $95,000 has been raised thanks to financial support from local businesses, service clubs and individuals. The committee, which is comprised of chair Jim Thomas Gerry Irwin and Jim Paterson hope to surpass the $100,000 mark this year. All funds are returned to participating schools to assist their music programs.
