

Santa Claus Parade set for Dec. 6

The 2014 Stouffville Kinsmen Santa Claus parade will take place Dec. 6 at 2 p.m.

This year's theme is Christmas Around the World, and floats will set off from 10th Line and Aintree Drive/North St. and wend their way down Main St. to Ninth Line, where the parade will end. People or businesses wishing to participate can register by calling Guy Cooper at 905-640-3560 or sending an email to sirguy2008@gmail.com.

Certificates of insurance must be provided by each entry before the parade date and entrants are asked to request that the Stouffville Kinsmen be added to the certificate. The parade fee for any business is a minimum donation of $50. Non-profit/community service groups and schools are free.

The parade line-up will be in the Cam Fella Estates, Main Street and Mohawk Gate, east of 10th Line. Judging of floats will take place at 1:30 p.m. Parade disassembly will use Ninth Line south between Hoover Park Drive and Main Street. Parents should plan to park at St Brendan Catholic School, 751 Hoover Park Dr., or on Fernglen Crescent to meet up with floats.

The Stouffville Kinsmen Mailing address is P.O. Box 1133, Stouffville, ON L4A 8A2.

Shear genius at Markham Fair
