Local Choirs to Perform at ArtsCan Circle Benefit Concert

By Hannelore Volpe

Two home-grown choirs will perform a concert Saturday November 7 to benefit ArtsCan Circle. Stouffville's Back to Blues and Shout Sister will take to the stage at Parkview Village Auditorium for Stouffville in Chorus. Back to Blues is a well established chorus, which performs mixed voice harmonies in all styles of music from the 16th to the 21st century. Founded in 1998, the chorus also raises funds or awareness of noble causes. The Shout Sister choir sings a fun variety of music from pop and Motown to folk and a touch of country and blues. The chorus has grown to 20 chapters in Ontario since starting in 2002. There will also be a special appearance by children's choir The Believers, led by long time Stouffville resident Jean Thomas. All proceeds from the concert, presented by former Stouffville resident

Jim Priebe, go to ArtsCan Circle. This non-profit organization sends teams of musicians and artists to remote First Nations communities to bring music, drama and art workshops to schools and groups of young people. The show begins at 7 pm. Parkview Village is located at 12184 Ninth Line in Stouffville.
