

Eleventh month, eleventh day, eleventh hour
Pouring rain and chilly temperatures didn't deter the large crowd who attended this year's Remembrance Day service and laying of the wreaths at the Cenotaph outside the Stouffville Legion hall on Nov. 11.

One of the many colourful floats which took part in the 2005 Santa Claus parade. This year's parade takes place from 2 p.m. Dec. 2.

No Festival of Lights would be complete without Santa himself, who has promised to stop by and join everyone in celebrating the season and singing carols. Fill out a ballot for the chance to win a gift from Santa, who will be available for photos at Healing Force east of the Clock Tower from 8 to 9 p.m., following the festivities.

Santa will also be at the store from 1 to 3 p.m. the following day for photos. Anyone who is unavailable that weekend can have a photo taken with the jolly old elf at the IDA drug store Dec. 9 from 1 to 3 p.m. or Over the Moon toy store Dec. 15 from noon to 3 p.m.

Christmas is a time for giving to others in need. Gifts can be dropped off under the Salvation Army Christmas tree at the GO station from Dec. 4.
