

Remembering Those Who Fell

Bach to Blues Choir Presents 'A Christmas Concert'

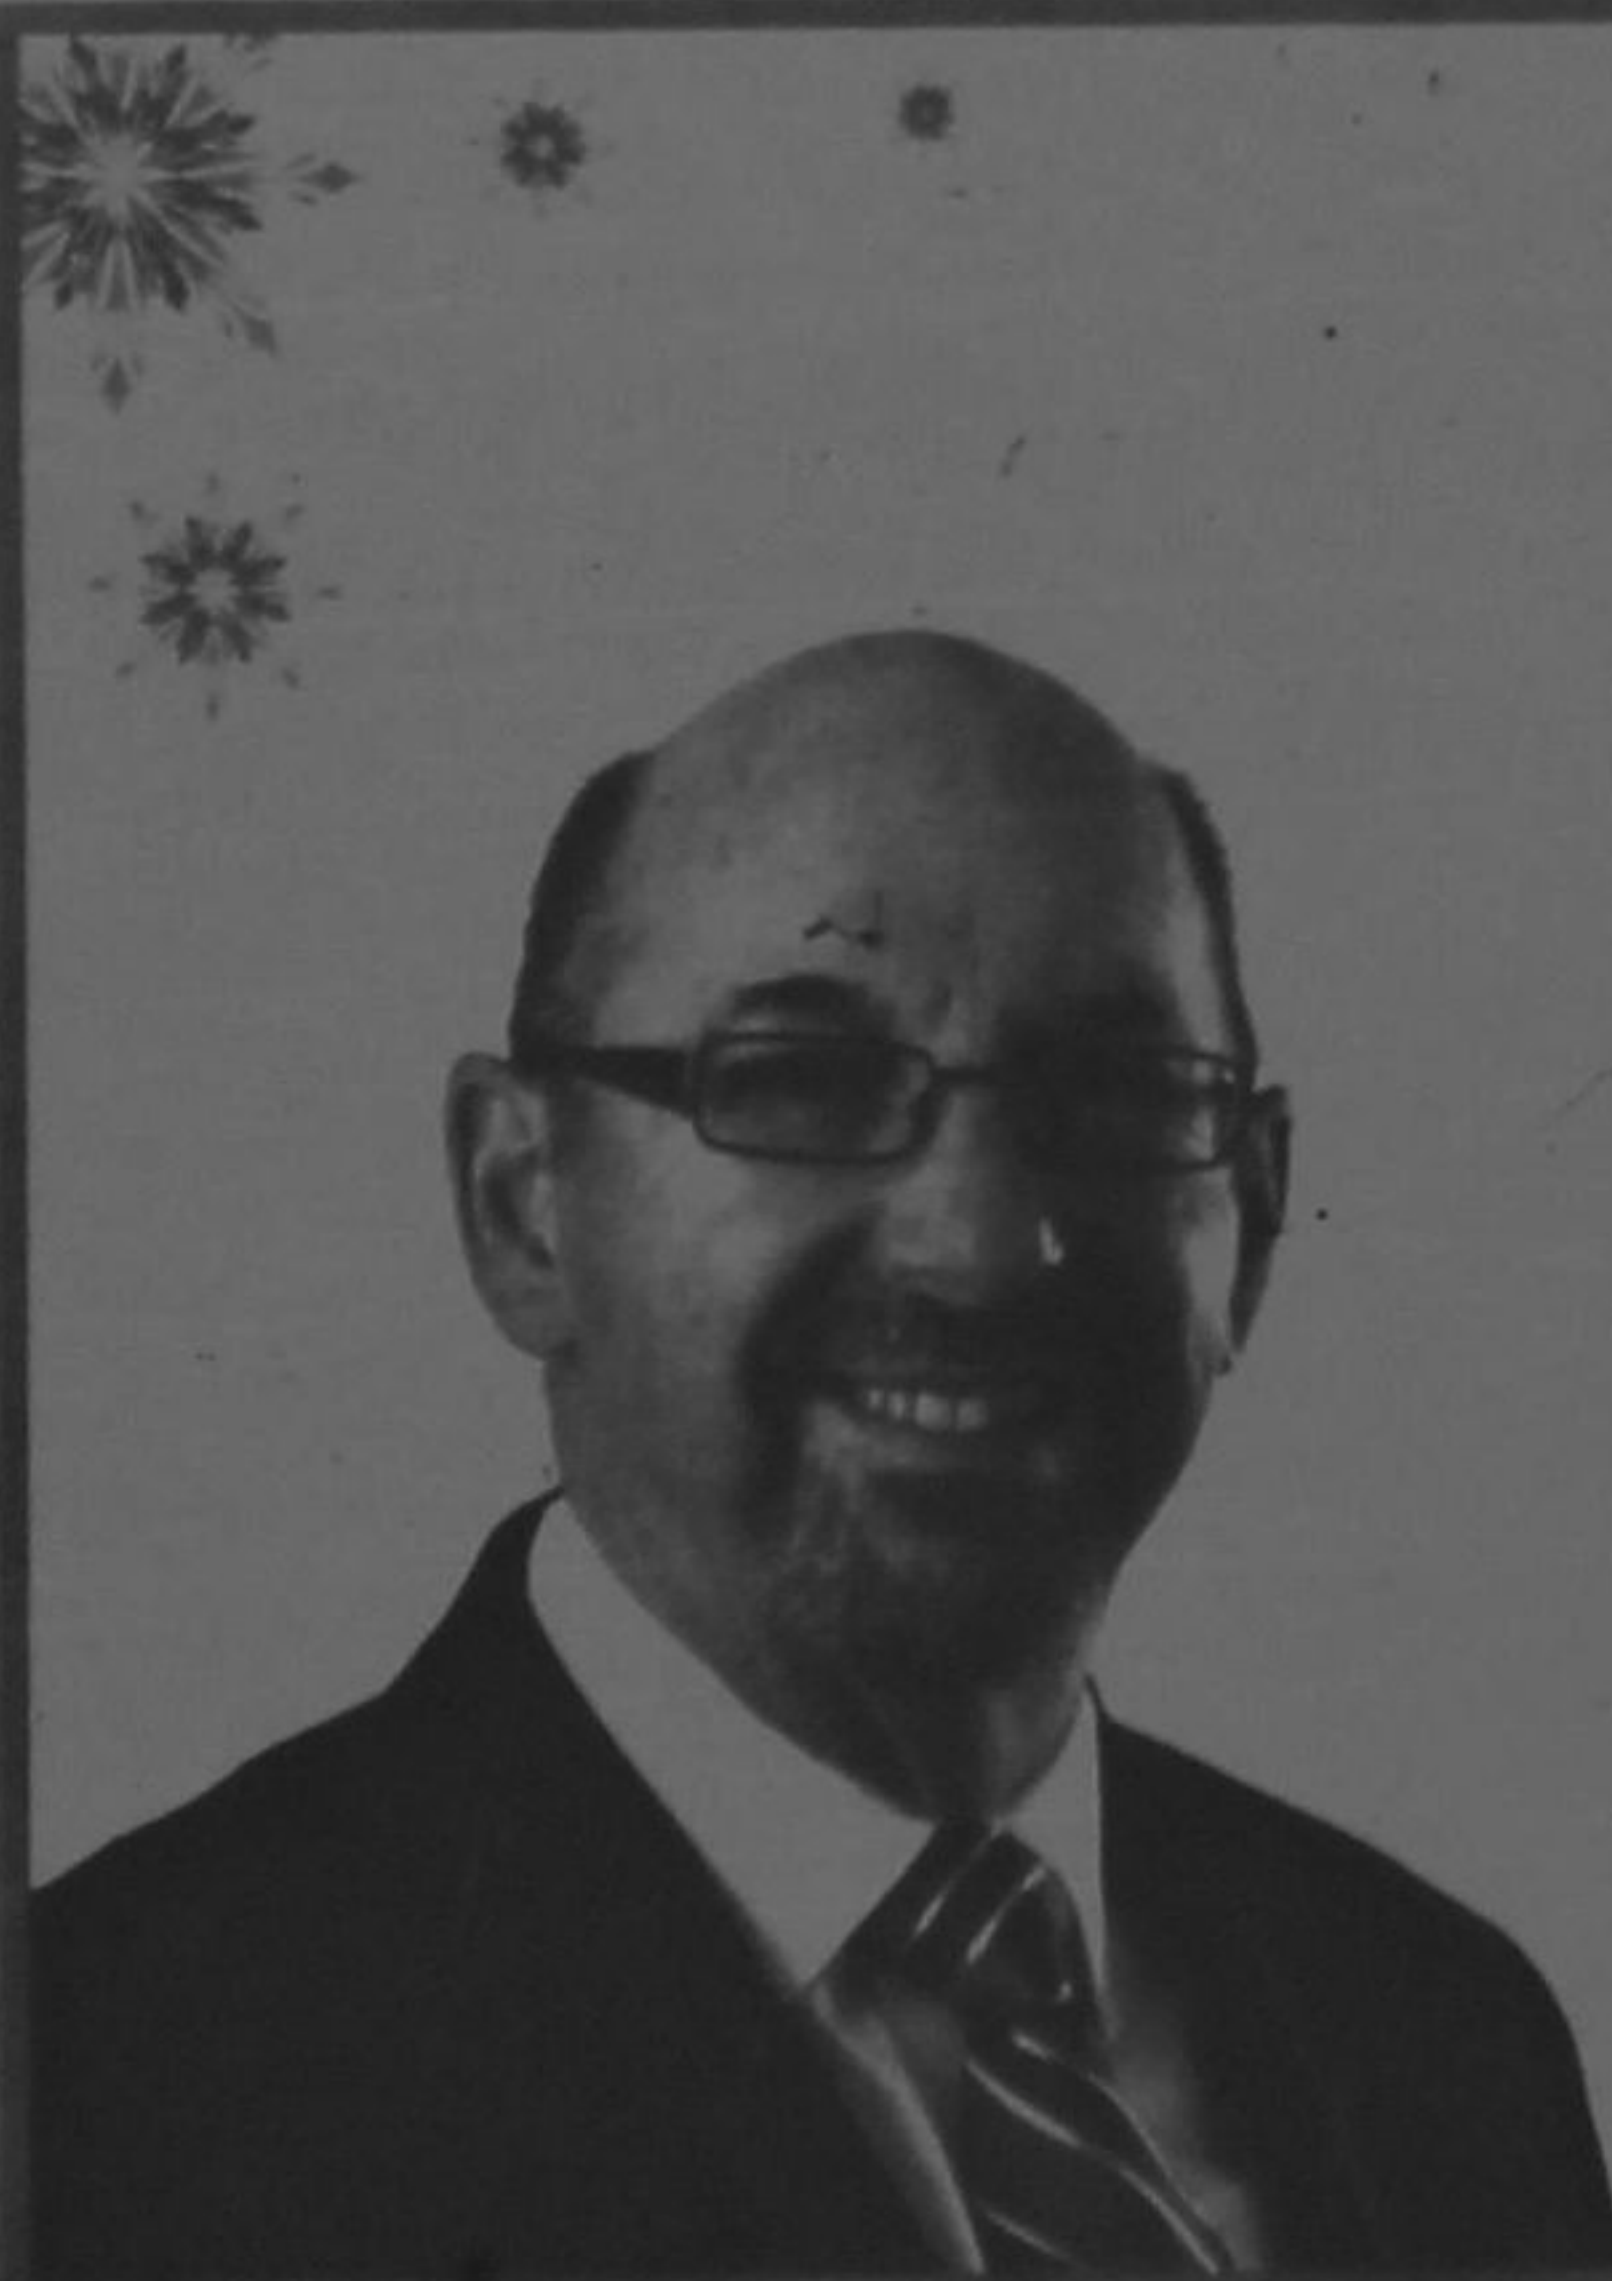

If shopping lists, parking lots, gift wrapping and baking are stressing you out, the Bach to Blues Company is offering to entertain you this Saturday, December 5.

The Stouffville based mixed voice choir is presenting 'A Christmas Concert' at Christ Church Anglican featuring beautiful choral music of the holiday season. You'll even get a chance to sing along to some traditional Christmas carols. Special guest artists are the Aldbury Gardens Brass Quintet. Performances are scheduled for 2:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

The church, which is fully accessible, is located at 254 Sunset Blvd. in Stouffville.

Tickets are $12 if purchased in advance at Barthau Jewellers, 5758 Main St., or Cards Appliances and Televisions, 6392 Main St., up until this Friday December 4th. Or pay $15 at the door. A portion of the proceeds will go to help the family of Anastasia Cameron of Uxbridge in the wake of a tragic automobile accident.

Hope to see you there! Merry Christmas!

*Wishing all the residents of Whitchurch-Stouffville
peace and happiness during this beautiful season and throughout the coming year!*
