WhiStle Radio Broadcasts Holiday Cheer!

WhiStle Radio is Stouffville's Holiday Community Radio Station. This year we will broadcast many different Holiday specials from show hosts like Curly D who will feature holiday Big Band music, Lloyd Welke with Classic Country greats, The Morning Show hosts with toe tapping tunes to kick start your day and even local artists' selections. "We are known for our diverse programming and the holiday season is no exception," said WhiStle programming director Don Maitland. "We will have music from all over the world representing many cultures and genres. We even have a reading of A Christmas Carol with Steven Sword. There's something for everyone."

Fresh is ready for the Holidays too! A live Wednesday morning talk show hosted by Brenda Masson and co-produced by Jason Rumball and Ivan Harris. Fresh starts the month with Holistic Nutritionist Shawn Nisbet on December 2nd talking about how not to gain weight over the holidays, and Charlene Jones discussing her new book The Care and Share will be in the studio with all kinds of great gift ideas on Dec. 9th and Angela Dacey will talk about the Colours of the Season and Soul Mala. On Wednesday December 16th Celtic Historians Laurie and Alison will delve into roots of some of our holiday traditions and the celebrations for the winter solstice. On December 23rd Fresh will air a pre-recorded show called From our Home to Your Home which features stories of Christmas past and present with some of WhiStle Radio's favorite show hosts sharing their favourite music and memorable moments.

Once again, WhiStle Radio will broadcast commercial-free Christmas music Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. For a full list of programs and schedules go to the new WhiStle Radio Web site at www.whistleradio.ca. WhiStle Radio streams live on the web site or on your FM dial at 102.7.
