The year just ending was a good one for Stouffville Fine Furniture.

The store, operated by George and Ville Papas and their son Nicholas, celebrated its 10th year in business in Stouffville in 2003. The year also saw them named Whitchurch-Stouffville Chamber of Commerce Entrepreneur of the Year.

According to Ville, it's important to offer customers good quality furniture, great service, and plenty of choices. "We can offer a choice of fabrics on any of the styles of sofas, loveseats and chairs in our showroom," she says. "And we now carry a solid wood product line in bedrooms, dining rooms and dinettes. We also offer lowest pricing on Simmons Mattresses."

Delivery is free in Stouffville and the surrounding area and they'll even unpack and set up your furniture at no extra cost.

With the coming of the New Year, Ville, George and Nicholas would like to express their gratitude to their loyal Stouffville customers. "We want to thank our customers for a wonderful 2003 in our new location in the heart of Stouffville. We look forward to filling your furniture needs in 2004."
