

New owner brings a Gallic touch to The Emerald Isle

When The Emerald Isle Bistro and Bar in downtown Stouffville changed hands recently, the new general manager, Kulam, decided to put the culinary emphasis on French cuisine.

The restaurant has retained its friendly atmosphere while adding a touch of class with crisp table linens and an adventurous menu which includes steak, duck confit and braised spring lamb shanks. In addition to nightly specials, Kulam plans to feature a number of special events, including a wine tasting menu at the end of March.

The restaurant is open seven days a week for lunch and dinner, as well as for breakfast on the weekends.

The Emerald Isle adopts a French accent courtesy of new owner and chef Kulam, who offers lunch and dinner seven days a week, as well as a delicious breakfast menu on weekends.

Grapes' hockey visor at Celebrity Doodle Auction

A starry night is guaranteed at the 9th annual Celebrity Doodle Silent Auction, which features original signed and framed doodles, drawings and small works of art created by local, national and international celebrities.

Also up for grabs is a one-of-a-kind hockey visor, emblazoned with a cheeky greeting written by the irrepressible Don Cherry himself, which reads, "Here's looking at you!" Acclaimed wildlife artist Robert Bateman has once again generously donated an original drawing for the event and other stellar contributors include Vanessa Redgrave, Randy Bachman, Donna Summer, Paul Gross, Lynn Johnston and Margaret Atwood.

And if Leonard Cohen is your man, you will have a unique opportunity to bid on a signed, limited edition print created by one of the greatest singers and songwriters of our time. Special guest John Allan Cameron will not only doodle for the occasion, but will also perform some of his trademark musical magic.

The Doodle Auction, which includes live music, delicious hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar, takes place at 7 p.m. April 3 at the Uxbridge Community Centre. Tickets are just $10 each from Blue Heron Books, Presents, Presents, Presents and Woods & Woods on Brock St. in Uxbridge, or at the door.

All proceeds go to support the the York Durham Heritage Railway and the Uxbridge Celebration of the Arts.
