

Eyes right for the winning car! This winter, 1st Stouffville Cubs played host to youngsters from across the region at the Kub Kar Rally in Latcham Hall. The event was generously sponsored by A & P, Canadian Motocross Racing Club, Giles Chev Olds, Kidstuff Marketing, Roberts Bell Engineering, Mark Swain and his Racing Team, M & M Meats, Sandylion Stickers, Stouffville United Church and Stouffville Lions Club.

Mark Cullen special guest at Stouffville Horticultural Society

A large crowd is expected to attend the Stouffville Horticultural Society's 2004 Speaker Presentation featuring nationally-acclaimed horticulturalist, author, television and radio personality Mark Cullen.

Mr. Cullen's topic will be 'Gardening, not just a hobby -- a lifestyle' and the event will take place at Stouffville Missionary Church, 6500 Main St. at 7:30 p.m. May 3. Tickets are $10 and are on sale at the Chamber of Commerce office, Parkview Home and the Lebovic Leisure Centre.

All proceeds will be donated to the Parkview Home Building Fund and everyone is invited to join Mr. Cullen for tea after the presentation. Autographed copies of his latest book will be available for sale and anyone wishing to attend is advised to purchase tickets early to avoid disappointment.

Stouffville Recycling Group hosts reunion

A reunion for the Whitchurch-Stouffville Recycling Group will take place April 25 from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Silver Jubilee Club in downtown Stouffville.

"In celebration of our 30th anniversary, we are hosting a reunion for all people who have been involved with the Recycling Depot over the past 30 years," said group president Jim Priebe. Lunch will be served and anyone interested in attending should contact Mr. Priebe at 905-640-8294 or send an e-mail to recycle@enoreo.on.ca.

"We would also appreciate leads on people who have left Stouffville," he said.
