YDAPA performance truly amazing

To the Editor:

On Friday, April 2, we had the distinct pleasure of attending a performance of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat presented by the York Durham Academy of the Performing Arts.

Joseph's Dreamcoat was not the only amazing phenomenon. Not having seen any previous performances by this group, we were greatly impressed with the professionalism of all involved, from those taking the major roles to the precision and enthusiasm of the children of all ages. It was a superb performance in an excellent playhouse, and we congratulate all those involved -- in particular the director, Wayne Hill, for his vision in establishing this company.

For us, as residents of Stouffville, the icing on the cake would have been watching the performance in the much-needed "Whitchurch-Stouffville Theatre for the Performing Arts". Thank you to all concerned.

Eastern Gate Senior Awareness show

An indoor yard sale is planned for May 15 from 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Grand Hall at 36 Eastern Gate Crescent and everyone is welcome to attend.

On May 18 from 9:30 am. to 1:30 p.m., the same venue will host the Seniors' Awareness Show, an information event for older residents in the community organized by the Stouffville Community Policing Centre. Displays on safety and protection programs, as well as community leisure services, will be included at the show and visitors can discuss their concerns and needs with representatives from the town.

Admission is free and tea, coffee and goodie bags will be provided.

Wardrobe malfunction alert! Rob Reid, seen here with Genny Cuthbertson (left) and Sally Gyton, gets roped in for his 15 minutes of fame in this year's witty and tuneful Music Mania show, entitled From the Cutting Room Floor. This sparkling tribute to classic and modern movies, which ran April 22-24 at Stouffville District Secondary School, provided another unforgettable evening of music, dancing and laughter.
