

DEBBIE REYNOLDS

A dog enthusiast since childhood, Debbie Reynolds is the proud owner of the number one dog obedience school based in Markham. She is trained by her two Great Danes, Chey and Batman. Debbie believes that "PAWS"itive reinforcement, communication and consistency is the formula for building a confident, well-mannered, socially-sound canine companion. "Life's Ruff" was started in 1997 to help pet owners establish a bond of friendship and trust with their dog. Debbie's school offers Puppy Socialization classes through Advanced training, Agility and Pet First Aid Courses. Private training is also available. Debbie is a member of the Canadian Association of Professional Pet Dog Trainers and continues her education by attending seminars, conferences, and workshops on canine behaviour and training. Life's Ruff instructors are dedicated, hard-working, solid in their training and are committed to continued education. Debbie has formulated an Instructor Criteria which must be met to ensure that students receive the best training available. To find out more call 416-568-3222.

LISA COUSINS

Lisa Cousins, a Stouffville resident for over 20 years, is a natural health practitioner. With many years of experience, she is well versed in the art and science of natural healing. Lisa's treatments help many ailments such as allergies, sinus and ear problems, headaches, sciatic, arthritis and digestive and circulatory disorders. Ear candling gently removes wax, yeast and pollutants from bronchials, sinuses and ears. Candling helps all sinus and ear problems, wax buildup, ear ringing, headaches, allergies, asthma and dizziness. Reflexology stimulates organs and glands, clears blockages and flushes out toxins. This strengthens your immune system, increases energy and circulation and balances the whole system. Lisa is certified with the Reflexology Association of Canada. Iridology is the ancient science of 'reading' the iris. It reveals our strengths, weak areas and organs and systems that aren't functioning properly. For information and appointments on these and other therapies call Lisa at 905-640-1500.

CECELTA BRYNIAWSKY

Wellness Consultant Cecelta Bryniawsky is a certified Electro-Dermal Screening Technician who operates her practice at 6333 Main St. in Stouffville. Cecelta uses her professional skills to restore balance to the body with the help of herbals, homeopathic remedies, nutritional supplements, flower essences, and diet and nutritional counseling. Electro-Dermal Screening is a non-invasive procedure that tests for the presence of pathogens such as parasites, viruses, bacteria, yeast, fungus and environmental pollutants. It can also determine food and environmental sensitivities. "When you balance the wonder of nature with the precision of science, the results are extraordinary," says Cecelta, a five year Stouffville resident. Electro-Dermal Screening is recommended both for those who suspect something may be wrong as well as for people looking to identify potential problems before they become an issue. Cecelta obtained her licence four years ago from the College of Natural Sciences of Central Ohio. She is engaged in ongoing training and research with the College. Please call Cecelta for an appointment at (905) 642-5626.
