

VOTE Sue Sherban Mayor Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville

- Small Business Owner
- Board Member - Markham Stouffville Hospital, 89 million budget
- * Raised over $1/2 million dollar for Indoor Pool Fundraising Campaign
- Solicited over $100,000 corporate dollars for Strawberry Festival over past 5 years
- Board Member - Whitchurch-Stouffville Library Board, $1/2 million dollar budget
- Council Representative - Business Improvement Area, past 6 years
- 7 years experience Marketing and Sales Bell Canada

"Over $225,000 was raised through Bowl For Kids Sake 2002 and I can't thank you enough for the part you played in its success. Your Assistance over the last couple of years has been tremendous and greatly appreciated."

K. Henderson, Director of Development Big Brothers of York

Look today for an 'Elect Sue Sherban for Mayor' brochure in this paper.

V
O
T
E

S
U
E

M
A
Y
O
R

V
O
T
E

S
U
E

M
A
Y
O
R

April 1998

Left: Sue Sherban is committed to open communication with all citizens of Whitchurch-Stouffville.

www.suesherban.com

Sue Sherban is the first Councillor in Whitchurch-Stouffville to launch her own website. Aimed at her ward 6 constituents, Sherban believes in keeping the community informed.

April 2002

Left: Sue Sherban is always looking for new and innovative ideas to make our community of Whitchurch-Stouffville an even better place to work, live and play.

Councillor Sue Sherban stands inside the Orangeville Town Hall and Theatre building. When the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville wanted to know what to do with the Old Town Hall, Sue Sherban went looking for ideas.

Right: Sue Sherban has been continuously involved on issues of youth and community safety.

May 2000

Councillor Sue Sherban and York Regional Police Chief Robert Middaugh listen to public input at forum on youth justice at the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville offices last week.

CAMPAIGN OFFICE - 6342 MAIN ST., STOUFFVILLE

BIA TRICK OR TREAT ON MAIN ST. - SATURDAY OCTOBER 25TH 11:00AM TO 3:00PM

Working for a better community...

Email sueformayor@sympatico.ca | Tel. 905.642.9455 | Paid for by the Committee to Elect Sue Sherban for Mayor