Get Lacey at Museum

You can create a lacey scarf or the beginnings of a shawl during an introductory course on hairpin lace at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Museum. Participants will learn the basic stitches during the first session, while joining and finishing techniques will be covered the second week.

Participants will be required to supply knitting needles (size 4.5 mm), a crochet hook (size 3.5 mm), their own choice of wool and must be comfortable with basic crocheting stitches.

The fee is $40 (only $32 for Museum members!) and includes pattern, instructions, use of a hairpin loom and light refreshments.

The course will take place Wednesdays, Oct. 13 and 20, from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. or from 7-9 p.m. The Museum is located at 14732 Woodbine Avenue, three km. north of Bloomington Road in the hamlet of Vandorf. For more information or to register, please call 905-727-8954 or toll free at 1-888-290-0337, or visit the website at www.townofws.com/museum/ and click on "Adult Craft Workshops".

SILVER CELEBRATION - Regional artists gathered Sept. 16 to celebrate the 25th anniversary of Stouffville's Latcham Gallery. Pictured are (left to right) sculptors Bill Lishman, Lynda Baird, Ron Baird and photographer Christopher Chapman. Ron Baird, the first director of the gallery in 1979, said the Latcham was "a focus, a power point to bond the professional artists in the region".
