A glimpse of 1904

from page H16

While it is a pretty sight to see a long row of books in a neat and uniform binding, like soldiers on parade, there is a distinct loss of individuality. As you glance over your books upon their shelves, it is pleasant to recognize them from their outward dress.

A Sure Way - Mabel: I wish I knew some way to make George forget me, for I can never marry him... Bess: Have you tried lending him money?

Ten years ago the desert of Rechna Doab, in India, had not a single inhabitant, but now there are 800,000 living in comfort there. Irrigation is responsible.

* The Swedish town of Hafanger has established a tax on all stout persons weighing more than one hundred and thirty-five pounds.

Wash greasy dishes, pots or pans with Lever's Dry Soap, a powder. It will remove the grease with the greatest ease.

"My heart was thumping my life out," is the way

Mrs. R.H. Wright of Brockville, Ontario, describes her sufferings from smothering, fluttering and palpitations. After trying many remedies without benefit, six bottles of Dr. Agnew's Cure For the Heart restored her to perfect health. The first dose gave almost instant relief, and in a day suffering ceased altogether.

THE MARKETS - Spring chickens, 8 to 9 cents per pound, fresh eggs 22 cents per dozen, heavy hams 12 cents, potatoes 75 cents per bag.

Mr. W. J. Stark returned from Parry Sound hunting trip on Tuesday.

Ten experienced bush-rangers wanted at once. Address Brodie and Forester, Stouffville.

Mr. W. St. John has been suffering for the past week from inflammation, but we hope he may soon be all right again.

Mrs. Kelly and Master Archie spent yesterday with friends in Toronto.

General Kuroki, who has been reported dead, happens to be very much alive and will soon be asking the Russians to make a "Move on".

The recent mild weather has put the soil in condition for further plowing, and the farmers are hustling to turn over as much as possible before the winter sets in.

APPRENTICE WANTED - To learn willow working. Apply to W. McNabb, Stouffville.

Mr. Isaiah Hoover has moved back to his own place on the 9th of Pickering, we are sorry to lose Mr. Hoover from our midst.

After a protracted illness, Mr. Andrew Maghon of Lemonville died on Sunday evening last.

And our personal favourite item in the Nov. 17, 1904 issue of the Tribune:

Mrs. Aikenhead will preach in the Methodist next Sabbath evening on "The Ideal Man". Everybody welcome.

"Bringing You the World by the Board Foot."

A Complete Selection of foreign & domestic hardwoods, pine & hemlock.

A Unique Lumber Yard

How are we unique? Let me count the ways.

It's a family-run business stretching back to 1851.

It started off as a water-powered sawmill, followed by a large single-cylinder diesel (this along with the log carriage, can be found at the Markham Museum).

With more reliable power from the grid, we became a major pallet manufacturer. Now we are supplying the lumber needs for farmers, renovators and home-owners. The uniqueness of Century Mill Lumber now is seen in the types of wood we carry.

FOR EXAMPLE:

Hemlock for Farmers,

White Cedar for Fences and Decks

Domestic and Foreign Hardwoods for Furniture

This ranges from Avodire to Zebrawood

Also, we carry Pine - from select to knotty - and 1" to 8x12 timbers

Finally, to serve you, we have some unique, some say weird, staff to look after you.

From This...to This

In 1968, the Card family purchased an existing hardware business located on the north side of Main Street in downtown Stouffville. The store operated as a hardware and appliance business until 1983, at which point it relocated to its present location at the west end of Stouffville. At that time the area was basically open fields.

During the ensuing years the store evolved from hardware and appliances to appliances, water softening equipment and gas and electric fireplaces. This more limited product availability has allowed us to specialize and really focus on fewer items.

Now, in our 37th year of business, we are particularly proud of the reputation we have been able to establish - good service - fair prices with particular attention paid to our customers' various requirements.

We have been able to attain this mandate as a result of the wonderful staff who we have had the opportunity of working with during the past 36 years.

It is our continued intent to remain in business and to be actively involved in the local community for many years to come.

Our mandate has been to serve our many friends and customers.

We are particularly pleased that Ainsley Tucker-Card has returned to the family business.
