

Luke Anderson is surrounded by some of the many friends and neighbours who turned out for the Bid and Bop at Markham Fairgrounds. The fundraiser was an unqualified success, and proceeds will go towards a new wheelchair van for Luke.

Bid and Bop a huge success

"It was a Bid and Bop not to be missed or soon forgotten," noted Sandy Schell Kennedy, who was on the Friends of Luke organizing committee for the Nov. 7 event at Markham Fairgrounds.

Almost a year in the planning, the Bid and Bop for Luke Anderson was an overwhelming success, attracting over 670 guests from three generations. "The evening exceeded our expectations and (funds raised) will go towards buying a wheelchair van for Luke, as well as future needs."

The live and silent auctions featured more than 200 donations, both from within and outside the community, and energetic guests danced to live music and enjoyed a delicious buffet.

Whodathunkit tunes up for a night to remember Nov. 7 at Luke's Bid and Bop, which took place at Markham Fairgrounds. Close to 700 people showed up to dance the night away, bid on fabulous auction items and chow down on a delicious buffet.

This building at Markham Fairgrounds was packed to the rafters for the Bid and Bop for Luke Nov. 7. Six hundred and seventy people attended this unforgettable community get together, and proceeds from the event surpassed all expectations.
