

The Men of Note, seen here in relaxed mode during a rehearsal break, will perform their signature musical magic in a Christmas concert at Christ Church Anglican Dec. 20 at 7:30 p.m. Guests include the Salvation Army Brass Ensemble and soprano Susan Brown. For tickets and information call 905-640-7872.

Men of Note to host third annual Christmas concert

The Men of Note will present their annual Christmas Concert Dec. 20 at 7:30 p.m. at Christ Church Anglican on Sunset Blvd.

"The Salvation Army Brass Ensemble under the direction of Derrick Diffey will be providing their own Christmas music, as well as blending with the church's organ played by David Cadogan for the many carols that the audience enjoys singing," said Men of Note's Dave Duggan.

Soprano soloist Susan Brown will be a guest artist and two local choirs have also been invited to attend. "One is a children's choir and the other is a group of young ladies under the direction of Miriam Selick-Smith of Stouffville District Secondary School," said Mr. Duggan.

During the concert, the Men of Note will present several Christmas songs in their inimitable chamber choir style. Tickets are $10, and are available at Card's Appliances and Hairbreak. Arrangements for ticket delivery can be made by calling 905-640-7872.

Santa Claus is coming to town

The Stouffville Kinsmen Club is hosting another fabulous Santa Claus Parade Dec. 6.

This year's theme is A Children's Christmas and the parade gets underway from North and Main St. at 2 p.m. Bands, clowns, beautiful floats and the jolly old elf himself are all part of this wonderful community tradition.

Stake out your spot on the parade route and join the fun.

Merry Christmas from
