C. C. H. C. Earn Shut-outs In First Two Starts

The Circolo Colombo Hockey Club who have entered the intermediate series of the T. H. L. opened their season auspiciously by blanking the Sioux Hockey Club to the tune of 2-0. Victor Bernardo, centre player on our "Kid line" scored both goals on passes by Gismondi and Scandiffo. Although the team lacked substitutes, the boys acquitted themselves in midseason fashion. The work of Pat Fratteroli and Dossey on the defense was little short of perfect while Chrysdale had little to do in goal.

Blank West Wards 1-0
 The Circolo chalked up their second victory in as many starts by defeating the highly touted West Wards at Willowdale Arena.

The Circolo was strongly augmented by the addition of Lou Spalla, formerly of Native Sons, Tony De Marco and Cliff King. The presence of these newcomers on the ice was very conspicuous, DeMarco, the new-comer scoring the only goal of the game.

In the first period the Circolo had the edge on the play and should have scored on various occasions on rushes by Scandiffo and Bernardo, the sharp-shooter, while the new line composed of King, Dossey and De Marco was pretty to watch on the offensive. Once again Fratteroli proved himself a tower of strength on the defense. The last period was packed with thrills. Play flashed from one end to the other and both goalies were called upon to make sensational saves.

Circolo Colombo Social

Last Tuesday evening marked the beginning of a proposed series of dances and socials which we anticipate holding this coming year. It is our object and aim to make our Club the centre of the social activities in our colony and to strengthen the tie of friendship between ourselves and the various organizations, both young and old but more specifically the former element. In the near future we expect to hold more affairs of a similar nature and hope to gain your full co-operation.

Last Tuesday a crowd of young people gathered at the Circolo Colombo to dance to the strains of Dick Lobraico and his orchestra. A most enjoyable evening was spent by everyone present and for those who were absent all we can say is "Ask those who were there". Now that the Lenten season is fast approaching our social activities shall cease, to be renewed again with a glorious ball on Easter Monday.

Circolo Win By Default Now Leading Group

Circolo Colombo won their third straight game by default last night when New Toronto failed to put in an appearance. An exhibition game was played with the A. R. Clark team of intermediate commercial series, the score ending in a 1-tie.

MISS BORSA MARRIED

Miss Rose Borsa, daughter of Bro. Tom Borsa, was wedded to Mr. Ed. Bavington last Tuesday morning, in St. Francis Church. Rev. Father Borsa, brother of the bride, officiated.

A wedding breakfast was held at the home of Bro. Borsa after the church service. After the breakfast the happy young couple departed for a short honeymoon to the United States. Upon their return they will reside at 26 Barton St.

BOWLING NEWS

(By Albert Pellettieri) KI 7142

Monday January 29 Columbus Coal vs. The Hookers
 Tuesday January 30 Lucky Strikes vs. Eatons
 Wednesday January 31 5 Pellettieri vs. Columbia
 Thursday February 1 Spows vs. Friuli

The Eaton Bowling team with the addition of Tommy Malen have taken a new lease on life and each week they gradually move ahead towards the coveted playoff positions. This week their victims were the Friuli. Led by the aforementioned Malen with 697 and 672 respectively they took three points. Ponesse and De Zorzi were the best for the losers with 655 a piece but their efforts fell 18 pins short of annexing, the total point score, Cufaro with a single game of 312 was the highest on either team but his two following games failed to get anywhere.

Spows had a change of heart and managed to take 3 points from the Lucky Strikes and this was due to the long awaited return to form of Elia who has been bowling poorly the last few weeks. With two single games of 288 and 259 he hit 713 for the total to lead both teams in this respect. T. H. B.

checked his ever falling average for a time with 650 and was closely followed by Gorassi with 638. Gismondi was the best for the losers with 646 but the ever reliable G. Bernardo had his usual over 200 average to record 618. Tassiello showed a spark of last year's ability with 629 but we look for better scores from him. "Perpetual Mouth Motion" Conti rolled 2 very poor games but we can readily understand this because Vincent Pellettier was not there to give him the razz.

Columbia took four points by default when the Hookers failed to put in an appearance but in rolling for their averages Grittani rolled 301 and 255 which with a fair third game totaled 744. Marcello had a single game of 256.

In the last game of the previous week the "Unlucky" Pellettieri took three points from the Lucky Strikes and only lost the fourth by ten pins or the

Frankie Genovese Wins Thirteenth Pro. Fight

Last Monday night at the Arena Gardens, Frankie Genovese, popular local prizefighter succeeded in defeating 'Young' Millie Jackson of Brooklyn, N. Y., by a knockout in the third round. It is just one year ago on January 27th that this paper announced that Genovese was fighting his first Toronto pro. fight. Since then he has fought thirteen fights and has been victorious in all of them. Last Monday he was matched against the best opponent he has met as Jackson has defeated several of the top notchers, and the decisive manner in which the local Italian boy defeated his more experienced rival gives ample support to the statement made in these columns last week, that he will be a strong contender for world's honors in the near future, that is barring accidents.

Another local Italian boy who gave a good account of himself was Vince Glionna, who defeated a rugged and hard hitting boy from Windsor. Vince showed in this fight that he can take it and also hand it out, as after absorbing severe punishment in the first three rounds, he came back strong in the fourth round and knocked his opponent out.

CLUB NOTES

Are you aware that our regular monthly meetings take place on the fourth Sunday of each month? Next Sunday the first general meeting of the year will take place at 3 P.M. Many and various important topics are to be thoroughly discussed. Do not fail to attend.

The Circolo Colombo Hockey team is off to an auspicious start. They have already chalked up two shutouts.

The members of the Spow and quite a number of the boys were out to see our team blank the highly touted West Wards at Willowdale Arena last Monday night. A few old timers were present and they seemed to have enjoyed the game immensely.

R. Polito and W. Sansone are again at the helm of the Hockey Club and this year with the addition of some new blood they expect to get somewhere. Perhaps a championship. Who knows?

Rev. Father Borsa paid a visit to our Club last Tuesday evening accompanied by his father, Bro. Tom. Father Borsa renewed many acquaintances, several of whom were his former classmates.

Tony Riccio has again come into the limelight with his new Clark Gable sweater and is stealing the thunder from Beau Brummel Johnny Grieco.

The attendance at our first social of the year was rather disappointing. The support expected from our member body was somewhat lacking with the exception of a few of the regulars.

Next Monday, January 29th, Bro. Charles Cirra and his wife celebrate their twenty-first wedding anniversary.

We take this opportunity of extending our sincere congratulations to the happy couple, with the hope and wish that the Good Lord may spare them for many more years to come.

Handicap after a heartbreaking finish. The team again set a high three game score with 3371 and each member hit well over 600. The Lucky Strikes also rolled well and it was a close battle throughout.

The Hookers seem to have lost interest in the league and to keep things in order it would be advisable if something was done quickly to offset this calamity. Suggestions will be gladly accepted.

Friday Nighters.

The Strikes and Blows turned the tables on the Hit and Misses last Friday when they took the two points after a close struggle. Chris Mastrangelo once again led her team to victory with 338 for two games. Mary Dinorcia rolled 282 and Bena Mazza had 372. For the losers Rose Cairo was the best with a single game of 245 and a total of 387 for two but her efforts were useless when her teammates rolled poorly. Josephine Grittani was the low score this week and she gets the crocheted rag given by Andy. Kay Mazza upheld the fame of the Mazza clan by rolling 263. The girls are improving in their bowling each week and it would be a problem to pick the star of the aggregation.

Keep at it, girls, and we'll pick the five best to take the place of the Hookers in the men's league.

Question Marks.

Babe Palange crashed the limelight this week with the marvelous score of 399 for two games and a single of 210. This young lady doesn't say much but she is always in there trying to do her best which is the way it should be. Rosalind continued her rapid pace of the last few weeks with a score of 348 to bring her average up to a commanding lead. The usual luncheon was served and Bob Polito was initiated in the ranks of the vultures, which boasts of an ever increasing membership. He is still chasing his lady love and it would be appropriate to give another hint. She lives North of Dundas. The sewing circle began but poor Andy could not find anyone to mend his coat. I guess they have not reached that stage yet.

'Is Fascism the Answer'

do not contribute much to the clearness of the subject, when the argument is not treated in the proper manner, which was uncalled for in this case. None the less, there is no lack of several polemical items which render the work lively and brilliant; nor is there a lack of practical useful confutations of the vulgar opinions against Fascism.

The book has one defect, for which however the author is not to blame, but it is a defectiveness inseparable from the very nature of the argument. Fascism is dynamism. It is something ever changing in the fatal growth of human things. A writer can only grasp the present moment. The future is always uncertain, always insecure, because the movement, frankly, is still revolutionary and hence subject to profound changes.

Thus the author should revise the third chapter: "The Constitution and the Corporations" which was entirely passed over by the latest Italian legislative provisions. It is a difficult task but unavoidable if he wishes to keep up-to-date a publication which up to the present time is the most complete of its kind in Canada.

We beg to disagree with the author in his comparison between the American N. R. A. and the economic principles of Fascism. There appear to be elements of contact between the N. R. A. and the principles of the Corporate State, but these are rather scarce. The most important of them is that with the N. R. A. the liberalism which was injuring the people, is decidedly abandoned, while the liberalism which injured the industrial and commercial classes was already abandoned.

The contingency attached to the N. R. A. is what mostly differs from the Corporate State, because it invalidates the ethical contents of the law. It is certain that there are not a few who think that such a character will soon be taken away and that Roosevelt has begun an experiment from which it will be impossible to turn completely back. The die is cast and the game must be played.

The American people however, were not ready for the experiment even if necessity imposed it on them. The labour class is not mature, being much behind that of Italy, and much less mature appears the class of those who supply work, who in their egoism do not see the social crisis through which we are passing.

"The Italian Vanguard"

OUR COLUMN

The Wandering Vanguard has settled down at last!

Our main drawback for the past few months was the lack of a permanent club-room. This has now been overcome through the foresight of Cav. Carboni. He has been kind enough to allow us the use of his studio as a club-room. We thank you, Cav. Carboni, for your kindness.

You fellows who have been in Italy at Campo Mussolini can readily understand the significance of Piero Parini's visit to Toronto. You remember, of course, how comfortable he made our stay at Campo Mussolini. And now this same gentleman who has done so much for us is coming to Toronto. About the only thing we can do, is so far as repaying him for his gratitude, would be to try and make his short sojourn in Toronto as happy and as com-

In the chapter: "Progress and Results", the author should add something else, about the Fascist realization in brief and different paragraphs, since Fascism is the practical realization of the ideals of the people and the satisfaction of the collective needs and those of the nation as a whole. Why not a paragraph on the Fascists in foreign lands?

In the end we feel deeply grateful to the author for having studied so closely the contemporary life of our country, for having described it with accuracy and precision, for having placed so much impartiality, which to-day is so difficult to find here, and, why not, a little love for us Italians. Our ideas is not to present to the readers a perfect and complete work on Fascism; we have pointed out the defects rather than the merits, but we insist on the fact that Mr. Jones presents a pleasing work, full of interest, in which he shows that he has understood the true spirit of Fascism and its leader.

We beg to disagree with the author's opinion in one other thing. He seems to retain that the government of Italy is a dictatorial government. We firmly believe the contrary.

Because a government can be called dictatorial if it must rule only by force. The government of Italy to-day, more than by force, rules with the enthusiastic consent of the masses of every class.

"Is Fascism the Answer?" is amongst the most complete publications and the most practical on Italian Fascism in America in spite of some unavoidable errors which can be easily incurred in an argument so vast and so big in which the whole world is interested and of which all ask: "Is fascism the solution to the social crisis which is afflicting us?" A title which we would have preferred for Mr. Jones' book.
