THE ITALIAN VANGUARD

Elections Held

Our organization is now well under way and flourishing by leaps and bounds. The original members of the club — Sam Adams, James Saccoccio, James Di Pede, Joe Maniscalco, Leonard and Henry Barone, Joe Tomasicchio and Frank Scandiffio — elected their officers as follows:

- President — Frank Scandiffio
Secretary — Sam Adams
Treasurer — Henry Barone

Due to the increase of the membership list, an entertainment committee, or something to that effect, was elected. James Di Pede, Anthony Ricco, James Saccoccio, and Vic Baginato form the committee.

Sam Adams was also a member of this committee for a short time but being busy in secretarial affairs, he resigned his office and was replaced by Ricco.

He is even contemplating hiring a stenographer to help him along in his notes—or is it his spelling?

At Myrtle Villa

The tea which was held last Friday afternoon at "Myrtle Villa", James Franceschini's palatial home, in honour of H. E. Parini was one grand success. Scandiffio, Adams and Barone represented our Club at the affair.

Gen. Parini had a good heart to heart talk with the boys and during the huddle Henry's face grew red. We do not know what was wrong with him, but can guess that Minister Parini was probably letting slip some past incident in Henry's camp life.

You remember Corsini and Galasso, the two Hamilton youths. They were at the tea and joined the three locals in a bowling fray. It appears that Galasso is thinning out but his friend Corsini is making up for his lost weight.

At any rate they still remember their travelling companions and extend to them their kindest wishes. Thanks, Elmo! Thanks, Art! The Avanguardisti wish the same to you.

"Nor I", said Lil.
"Nor I", said Lena, as they both floated down the stairs on the waves of the scent.

Everyone had a good time. Music was supplied by Frank Bucceri and his orchestra.

Wishes

Our dear friend, Cav. Carboni, has taken ill during the past week. Cav. Carboni has not yet recuperated but if wishes come true, he would not be a sick man to-day. He has done a great deal for us and we hope for his speedy recovery.

Sam wishes to thank Martha for taking him home on Friday morning from the King Edward dance.

Girl wishes employment as pin girl. Has had experience on alleys. Apply L. M., Grace St.

The Vanguard wishes another meeting at the Circolo Colombo which will coincide with the Sewing Circle of the Circolo. And maybe those delicacies weren't delicious! Thanks, girls, we will do the same day.

We ALL wish that Phil Magi would make a little more noise at the meetings.

In a few weeks you will be reading our bowling news. We actually intend to start a bowling series.

Don't forget that bottle of olives, Joe! We heard that girls like olives.

Our last squawk: If you don't enjoy yourselves it's your own fault.

Adios,

F. S.

CONGRATULATIONS

The passing of years has apparently had little effect on Mrs. Lucia Cirigliano who on February 5th celebrated her ninety-fourth birthday.

Born at Laurenzana, Prov. Potenza, Italy, in 1840 she lived there for sometime before coming to New York where she resided for eighteen years. She is now living in Staten Island and enjoying life in every respect. She can recall many pleasant memories of her earliest childhood which proves that time has not affested her memory in any way. Her children are Mrs. Rosa Graziadei of New York, Mrs. Marie Theresa Marino of Stockton, Cal., Mrs. Anna Glionna of this city, Rocco and Vincent Cirigliano at home.

She has fifteen grandchildren and twenty great-grandchildren. Frank M. Glionna, choir director of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, is a grandson. That Mrs. Cirigliano may be spared many more years is a wish that will find response in the hearts of her many friends.

TRESETTE PARTY

Monday, February 12th
Following up the bridge and scopa party of last Monday evening in aid of the library fund, the social committee are hold a tresette party in the club-rooms next Monday at 8.30 P. M.

Each and every member is invited to attend and to bring their friends along to enjoy an evening of real entertainment. Prizes will be distributed.

CLUB NOTES

Many members were present last Friday to welcome H. E. Parini on his official visit to our club-rooms.

General Parini enrolled as honorary member of the Circolo Colombo, an honour indeed, from one of Italy's most illustrious sons. He was accompanied by Comm. Luigi Petrucci, Consul General, his Secretary Chev. Montanari, and Vice Consul Chev. Ambrosi together with many luminaries of our Colony.

The Circolo Colombo was well represented at the reception in honour of Minister Parini at the home of James Franceschini. Jos. Piccininni, Rocco Polito and W. Sansone were present.

Andy, our caretaker, was the recipient of a much belated Xmas present from one of our most popular young members who for reasons of his own wishes to remain incognito. Andy wishes to express sincere thanks and appreciation.

With the addition of Tommy Mallon, the Eatons bowling team have made rapid strides in our house league and seem to be going places.

The Fratellanza of the University of Toronto held a dinner dance at the Embassy Club. Approximately twenty couples attended and a most enjoyable evening was had by all. Incidentally the major part of the members belong to the Club.

Our first Bridge and Scopa party of the season was a real success. Many devotees of these favourite pastimes were present. Jos. Battaglia and Maggie Altavista and A. Teolis were the prize-winners for the men; Mrs. Perugini and Mrs. R. Grossi were best for the ladies.

The committee of N. Perugini, Joe Garbarino, W. Sansone and R. Polito, deserve great credit for the success of the party under existing circumstances.

C. C. H. C. IMPRESSIVE Defeat Sioux 7--2

The Circolo Colombo Hockey Club are now on the home stretch towards an intermediate city title having thoroughly trounced the Sioux Hockey Club in the first game of the group play-offs. The Circolo have set up a most enviable record this season, having won all their starts, five wins and one tie.

Getting back to last Wednesday's game at Willowdale Arena the Circolo Colombo boys took the Sioux aggregation for a grand ride, defeating them to the tune of 7 to 2. The first period opened up very fast with the Circolo netting three goals in less than three minutes.

Bernardo opened the scoring on a beautiful solo play and was followed by scores by Spalla and Scandiffio. Apparently the shifting of lines seemed to work wonders for the team. The game turned into a scoring bee for the Club boys with Spalla and Dossey scoring in the dying moments of the first period.

The second session proved fast and furious with the Sioux team pressing to get into the scoring column. However, Chrystdale rose to great heights, holding the opposition at bay. During this period Gismondi acquitted himself in a stellar manner and his bullet-like shots had the Sioux goalie worried. Dossey and King were regular back checking fiends and the work of Fraterolli on the defense was a treat to watch.

In the third and final period the Sioux came to life and scored their first goal on a rather lucky shot on which Chrystdale had no chance. However, the Circolo had things pretty well in hand. The scoring of this goal put the Circolo on the offensive again and Lou Spalla scored his third goal on a pass from Scandiffio. The second Sioux goal was scored by Fraterolli, our lefty defense man, the puck caroming off Dossey's skate past the goal-mouth. During a scramble in front of the net, the final counter of the evening was scored by Bernardo, King getting the assist.

Although the evening was rather cold, a good number of Circolo supporters were on hand to cheer the team on to an overwhelming victory over the Sioux. However, there is room for more rooters on our rooters' club, especially the young ladies who have been conspicuous by their absence.

Come on, girls, get organized and come to cheer the boys on to victory and possibly to a city intermediate championship.

The line-up for the game: Chrystdale, goal; defense, Fraterolli, Spalla; centre, Bernardo; wings, Scandiffio and King; subs. Gismondi, Dossey, Townsend and Zona.

Amongst our most ardent supporters is listed Gid De

Spirt, the Leo Dandurand of hockey at the Circolo. We wish to remind you that Gid was backing the first Circolo H. C. three years ago.

Bro. Flavio Belfanti has also taken a great interest in our favourite winter sport and is a regular attendant at all our games.

There was very little change in the standing during the week's bowling, but the Eaton Team, led by Tommy Mallon, continued their march towards the play-off position. Their victims this week were the disorganized Spows, who seem to be running into tough luck. The aforementioned Mallon knocked off high three for the year with 876. There were two 300 games in this total. Corin of the same team had a nice single of 257. Nick Perugini of the Spow Team has found himself and with 252 and 262 had a nice total for the night. His efforts, however, were futile, and they only obtained one point.

Columbus Coal kept up the hot pace of the last few weeks by taking three points from Columbia. Turnbridge, with 790, which also included two 300 games, led his team in an easy victory. Piccininni of Columbia had a nice single game of 343 to lead his team, but the other members were hopelessly out-classed. In the third game of the week the Five Pellettieri took four points by default from the Hookers. In rolling for their averages A. Pellettieri rolled 775 for three, but it was left to Jack Hannah of the same team to spill the maples in grand style, having three well-balanced games for a total of 758. Jack has been hitting into tough luck the last few weeks, but his performance of Thursday night was expected and gladly welcomed.

Due to irregularities cropping up, it would be advisable to have a meeting of all the bowling captains as soon as possible. After due consideration it is decided to hold a meeting on Sunday, February 11th at 3.00 p. m. in the Club Rooms. All bowling captains PLEASE TAKE NOTE. Final arrangements will be made at this meeting and anyone who is absent will have no further say in the matter, so govern yourselves accordingly.

FRIDAY NIGHTERS

The Hit-and-Misses, led by Margaret De Rose, who rolled 370 for two games, took two games from the Strikes-and-Blows in a thrilling evening's entertainment. Bena Mazza of the latter team rolled 360 for her two games, but she had very little assistance. However, the Strikes-and-Blows were handicapped inasmuch as they had a full team, and the other team with three dummies, obtained a 200 total for each dummy.

The activities of this gayous group after the bowling seems to be shrouded in deepest mystery and no one has as yet succeeded in crashing their tea party after the bowling. The Editor of this page is very anxiously awaiting his invitation to tip over a cup of coffee, or what have you, with this happy company.

QUESTION MARKS

Undaunted by the cold weather, the charming Question Marks??? put in their weekly appearance at the club for their regular bowling night. We won't mention scores this week, other than the fact that the girls are improving each week. However, if anyone were to go up-stairs on this evening at ten thirty, they would have been treated to a rural Canadian scene. There were the six young ladies and four hale and hearty lad-billies sitting at the long table beside the fireplace enjoying a meal of tea and cookies. Ah! I wish I was there. Why don't you come up some time? It seems that the whole atmosphere of the club is brightened when these young ladies put in an appearance. It seems that God was over-generous when He was distributing His virtues among these divine and glorious creations of Nature's art. The world is in need of little spots of sunshine in these days of depression, and the Circolo Colombo extends their heartfelt thanks for this merry troupe.

Bob Polito's girl friend lives west of Spadina Avenue.

THE JOYETTES

The Joyettes are holding a special meeting on Friday, February 16th, at the home of the Misses Helen and Adele Altilla, 271 Claremont Street. Every member is requested to attend. Matters of importance will be discussed.
