

Happy New Year

To some this greeting will be so much convention. To others, more serious-minded, it will mean the very essence of a newer and bigger hope. Undoubtedly, these people held the same attitude just one year ago!

Apparently, they will continue to retain that belief for many days to come. To them, Happy New Year really carries a graver meaning. And it is to them that the Circolo Colombo says, Happy New Year!

AUGURII

Nell'augurare ai nostri Clienti ed Amici un Prospero Anno Nuovo, prendiamo l'occasione per ringraziare loro dell'appoggio e dell'incoraggiamento che ci hanno voluto dimostrare finora e speriamo che detto incoraggiamento ci sarà riservato anche nel futuro. Da parte nostra, vi assicuriamo che nulla sarà trascurato per far sì che i nostri Prodotti (oggi i primi del genere in Canada) saranno sempre mantenuti al medesimo livello di qualità (se non migliorati).

Domandiamo scuse se i primi sigari furono messi in vendita prima di essere perfettamente stagionati, ma la colpa non è stata nostra, bensì dalle molte richieste pervenute da persone indeguate di continuare a fumare sigari manufatturati con tabacchi Canadesi e fatti passare per sigari di tabacco importato. Altri, con tabacco medicinali, ecc.

I nostri Prodotti sono sul mercato da solo quattro mesi, e come di ragione è possibile, che, non tutti gli Italiani attraverso il Canada hanno gustato la loro bontà, perciò preghiamo quei fumatori più esigenti, di lasciarsi ingannare per una sola volta e di giudicare da sé i nostri Prodotti assicurandovi fin d'ora che una volta provati non li lascerete più.

Lasciatevi ingannare!! insistete per i sigari Toscani Marca Venezia" 10 soldi l'uno; Marca "Roma" 4 per 25 soldi; Marca "Balbo" 6 per 25 soldi; Marca "Long Distance 3-4-10" 3 per 10 soldi; Marca "Alala" 3 per 5 soldi; Virginia alla paglia Marca "Primeros" 3 per 25 soldi; sigari Americani forma Panetelas Marca "Capuano's Blue Ribbon" 5 soldi l'uno; e Panetelas Marca "Solex" 3 per 10 soldi.

DANCING from 9 P.M. to 3 A.M.

Social Highlights

Ho! Hum!

Roast turkey, cranberry sauce, fruits, etc.—more roast turkey, more cranberry sauce, more fruits and more etc. Golly! What a holiday! It is no mean wonder that they set aside three fast days before Christmas! It is not a bad idea. It sets you up for your Christmas dinner, beautifully. After your dinner, you nibble continuously until the last show—which usually, ends at 12 midnight.

It was a grand Christmas, folks! No one can deny that! Department stores showed sales records which far exceed pre-1929 showings. Exchange of presents between numerous and more beautifully displayed. In fact, everything was much nicer. And that is the way it should be! Christmas has passed. We are very thankful for all the benefits we have received. Aren't you?

ADIEU 1934!

New Year's Dance

Santa Claus is or should be in the vicinity of Hudson Bay by now, providing he decided not to go home directly and not loiter about town until the New Year is officially opened. After all, how could anyone blame him if he decided in favor of the latter? Surely Santa has heard of the Circolo Colombo New Year's Frolic. For that matter who hasn't? Who would leave town with such an affair in view? No less than Santa, I hope.

AVE 1935!

The dance committee has spared nothing to secure the very acme of finer entertainment for the occasion. The orchestra, as you know, deserves some wee bit of merit. The catering will be the best obtainable. As a special feature, the committee has arranged for a very popular master of ceremonies for the evening.

Numerous inquiries have been pouring in of late regarding the hours of dancing for this frolic. The interest is deeply appreciated. Of course, the advertising states that the dance is due to begin at 9 P. M. Do not be disillusioned. Of course that sounds like an early starting hour due to the fact that many patrons are due to be working that night. Do not fret. Allow me to convey the idea that dancing will begin at 9 p. m. and not end until (?). By 3 a. m. everyone will be raring to do bigger, funnier, louder things. Where else can one enjoy such revelry indicative of modern youth, other than the Circolo Colombo? Don't forget! I'll see you there! For further information telephone HA. 8793 or AD. 2995.

Vanguard News

Vice President— Vic Bagnato
 Secretary— Charles Raccioppa
 Treasurer— Amy Ercoli

Hot dogs were very popular at the meeting which was held at Bill Bagnato's house the Sunday before Christmas. As expected, a small turnout resulted due to the fact that most of the boys were busy arranging the fruits for the day before Christmas sale.

The meeting was short and sweet and card games and hot dogs were the order of the day.

All members will be expected to attend the first meeting of the New Year.

Sunday night was a terrible night. Four of the boys were seen, or I should say, heard at choir practice at St. Agnes. Even when they had left the parish they continued to sing. It must have been what they had after supper.

A pool tournament was arranged some time ago and last Sunday Pat and Henry held it. The judges and donors of the prizes were Pat and Henry. The players were Pat and Henry and last but not least, the winners were Pat, first, Henry second. The prizes for the winners were to pay for the game. It certainly was a great tournament!

'Twas the night before Christmas. What happened? Plenty! After midnight mass not a person was seen out on the street, nor at home either except for those who entertained.

A couple of the boys visited the home of Erma Miceli on Bellwoods and enjoyed a fine time. So it was heard. Some one we know starved for a week but made up for it that night.

Four a. m. was friends a great time to call on friends. Maybe they were Santa Claus and maybe they weren't. Anyway the tenants had to get up. They showed them their Christmas tree and presents. A few minutes later one of the children got up. Was she surprised! She thought that Santa came in the morning and so he did.

As is the usual custom, families get together for Christmas. That was one day that the club members weren't assembled. Everyone was at his respective home, enjoying a day with the family. After dinner, the young ones went to the show while the older people played old Italian card games or talked over old times again.

New Year's is a repetition of Christmas. Another quiet day for the boys.

The Club wishes you all a happy and prosperous New Year.

Vanguard Chatter

The boys want to thank dear old St. Nick for bringing them a tie each (as usual). With the coming of the New Year, the boys are all busy making resolutions. We are not going to give you a list of them; after all, resolutions are only made to be broken.

Here is a little poem dedicated to the coming of New Years, as recited by Phil:
 New Years! Oh New Years!
 You come but once a year!
 New Years, New Years

Maybe we're wrong, and then again maybe.....

If you think the above poem is worth mentioning, give us a ring and we'll see that Phil gets what he deserves.

Vicy (To his girl friend's father):
 "Sir-er-ah. That is I would like er-er, that is, I mean I have been going with your daughter for two years."
 Father: "Well, what do you want... a pension?"

One way to hear all about your character would be to keep chickens in a yard next to the yard in which Amy was keeping a garden. (So What?)

Bill Bag: "Say what's a resolution?"

Pat Altilia: "You dumb guy! That's what happens down in Cuba every week!"

Frank Maddott's so dumb he thinks tennis is a racket (that's nothing, so is Badminton).

Henry wants to know what Ghandi would do if he were in Sir Walter Raleigh's place.

Louie F.— "That guy is so dumb he thinks a baseball coach has four wheels".

Vince— "Well, how many has the darn thing?"

New Year turkeys are being crossed with Octypus' so as every member of the family can have a leg.

Here is another dizzy rhyme:
 Can't write! Brain numb,
 Inspiration won't come;
 Bad ink, no pen and no beer
 Best wishes for A HAPPY NEW YEAR.
