e. William T. Fraser Killed in Action nother grim reminder of the tof war came to Dunnville last k in the announcement of the th on active service of Private liam Thomas Fraser, son of Po-Chief and Mrs. A. C. Fraser, day less than a month after he reached his 21st birthday. Pte. ser was killed in action on the an front, on May 23rd, 1944. Hy Preser was bertsuzen du ben a on April 24th, 1923, and his ation was gleaned in the puband high schools of Caledonia Cayuga. He came to Dunnwith his parents on Nov. 1st, He was keenly interested in ts, particularly in baseball and cey, and at 16 years of age was he Trail Rangers team of Caywho that year won the Halund-Norfolk championship. He a lad who enjoyed life to the and came honestly by a spirit dventure. His father had disuished himself in the last war, it was little wonder that Billy ld want to do his part in this and on his 18th birthday, Ap-4th, 1941, he volunteered for ice in the Royal Canadian Air e. About a year later, he left Air Force for active army, and after volunteered for active

'te. William Thomas Fraser

August, 1943, Pte. Fraser went seas, and for a time was ated to a demonstration platoon ngland. This, however, was what he wanted, and he quicklunteered for service on the in Front, where he saw action nly a short time before paying supreme Sacrifice. His letters had been cheerful always, the contents of them showed to be without fear of what t lay ahead, and it can be readssumed that he was holding is end of the job assigned him the end came. Sympathy out to his parents, Chief and Fraser, and to his only sister, ', aged 15, who survive him.

