GENERAL TOPICS OF SPORT.

TWO STATEMENTS WHICH REMAIN UNCHALLENGED.

Concerning The Royal Military College Hockey Trouble—A Pittsburg Hockey Team Not Giving Satisfaction.

It is expected that the anti-boxing law in New York will be made more rigid than ever. Dineen, who formerly pitched for Toronto baseball team, will receive $5,000 for playing next season with Boston.

The Toronto lacrosse team will leave for England on March 29th. The tour will last over five weeks and fifteen players will be taken to Cleveland. One of the fixed rules will be that no heavyweight, or even middleweight, will be allowed to compete.

Schaub, Toronto's third baseman, will be sold. His place will be taken by Louis Gier and Downey will play shortstop. Coogan, of Providence, has been signed to catch.

The executive committee of the Quinze district hockey league has decided to carry over the dates on which league matches are to be played and other information touching the same.

"Alfie" Pierce, of mascot fame, declares that Queen's will cause a surprise by the hockey team will play during the winter. The old college hasn't shown her "hand" yet. "Alfie" doesn't say what kind of a surprise it will be—happy or shocking.

The press agent of pugilist J. J. Corbett announces this morning to the dear people of the United States before whom the fighter appears on the stage: "One of Mr. Corbett's pet trophies is a solid gold-finished golf stick, presented to him by the club of York, whom Corbett met and played with in Toronto last October."

The bicycle club members believe they have the best hockey team in the Quinze district league and that they will "land" the cup this season. The club has a good captain in E. Ashby. The members have had a number of profitable practices, and the club has shown its ability to play hockey well.

The following resolution was adopted by the Western hockey club: "In view of confusion having arisen concerning the standing of participants in the racing in Canada last year, resolved, that owners, trainers, jockeys and horses who became disqualified for no other reason than participating in racing upon Canadian tracks during the year 1921, are hereby re-instated."

The Toronto Telegram continues its non-sensational glibble-gabble about the Royal military college hockey team whom it calls "Innocent Abroad." After all the abuse heaped upon the military team, two statements remain unchallenged: First, the K.C.M.C. hockeyists did not know that there were professional with the Keystones at Pittsburgh, Pa., and second, the O.H.A. failed in its duty in not giving the teams within its jurisdiction a list of Canadian professionals.

At Edinburgh, Scotland, Edgar Chichester, British one-time half-mile and quarter-mile amateur champion of Great Britain, easily beat C. Thomas, of Lasswade, in a half mile race for £50 and the world's professional championship at the distance. Thomas came out the work at a great pace, covering the first quarter of a mile in 56 1/2 seconds, with Bredin at his shoulder. The latter went clean away and Thomas, seeing pursuit hopeless, retired. The winner completed the distance in 2 minutes 13 seconds.

At last a Toronto paper begins to see corruption in the sporting arena of Ontario's capital. Here's what the Mail-Enterprise has to say: "If the O.H.A. ever starts in to investigate the amateur status of the young men who have been playing ball in this city under the guise of amateurs, there will be a number of vacancies in the hockey teams in this vicinity. It is a notorious fact that the money made during the season was divided at its close, and in many cases players were paid a stipulated sum for their services."

Report comes from Pittsburg, Pa., that the P.A.C. players will be discharged unless they play better hockey. The Pittsburg team's supporters say they will not lose their last year's laurels so long as a hockey player remains in Canada which they will sooner for crack pack chasers. On the P.A.C. team are: Lamb, Hamilton, Curstin, Reyner, Robinson, Smith and Shields. The four Kingston members of the team are doing all right, but the others are not. "Jerry" Curtin was never a hockey player at all, being only second-rate intermediate. Smith and Shields are, no doubt, in the same class.

Curling Matches.

Matches took place yesterday afternoon at the Kingston curling rink with these results: Rink No. 1—Bibb, Robertson, McKendry, Shaw, skip—12. Rink No. 2—McCannan, Herald, Lyons, Bailey, skip—8. Rink No. 3—Hoag, Creighton, McFarlane, Sutherland, skip—13. Rink No. 4—McKelvey, Alison, Power, Leslie, skip—14.

On rink No. 2, an extra end had to be played to decide the winners.

Good Advice.

The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects, such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual constipation, palpitation of the heart, heart burn, waterbrash, grating and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75c. Two doses will relieve you. Try it.

The interim promotions of the public schools affect about one hundred pupils. The promotions are now being gradually made.

IS HE KNOWN?

Death Of A Former Kingstonian In South Africa. This morning a letter was received from Capt. A. Cronwright, of the record office, discharge depot, South African mounted irregular forces, Cape Town, bearing the following intelligence:

"I wish to regret that I have to inform you of the death of trooper Charles Hooper, No. 964 (24245) second Imperial light horse, killed in action at Vischag, S.A., 11th inst. He did not state on his attestation form name and address of next-of-kin. A wire from officer commanding his regiment states:

"Cousin is believed to be the member of parliament for Kingston, Ont. He has a brother living in the same town." "Should this be your cousin I would be obliged if you would kindly inform me. Trooper Hooper enlisted at East London, March 9th, 1901, and was sent to Durban, 88, Tenbroeke Castle, August 9th, and from there to Pietermaritzburg. He stated he was a book-keeper by occupation, aged thirty-one, born at Kingston, Ont. He had no previous service in this campaign, but had served in the Canadian militia, in the 14th Princess of Wales Own rifles."

Mal. Galloway and a number of other members of the 14th regiment were asked to sign his attestation, but no one spoke to had any recollection of him. Can any citizen furnish any information about the deceased? It might be added that he is not related to Justice Britton, as might be supposed by the letter.

His Departure Regretted.

D. O. Pease, Montreal, district passenger agent of the G. T. R., who is retiring, has many friends in Kingston. He is leaving the railway company to start the firm of the E. G. B. Hicks cream separator company, Minneapolis. For twelve years, Mr. Pease has been the able, courteous and obliging official at Bonaventure station, and everyone in Montreal has a good word to say before entering the service of G.T.R. Mr. Pease was for several years travelling passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway, and previous to that had to do with the Great Western railway before it formed part of the G. T. R. Mr. Pease is a veteran of the Fenian raid, and can tell many a good story about those stirring times. He leaves Montreal followed by the best wishes of everyone.

A Planning Performance.

T. & Dungan's minstrels gave a planning performance at Rockwood hospital last night for the benefit of the patients. A great many friends of the officials also enjoyed the performance. After the show the visitors were dined by the officials of the institution. The minstrels speak in terms of praise of the official treatment accorded them by Dr. Clark and W. Shea.

Will Banquet Them.

At the close of the meeting of the board of education, tomorrow night the retiring chairman, Edward Bennett, will banquet the old and new members, the mayor and principals of the schools, at Carson's. He would like to have lady principals and teachers present, but that would overcrowd the room.

YOUR HOTEL will serve GRAPE-NUTS if you ask.

Order the food served dry and with cream to pour over it.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY.

PARAGRAPHS PICKED UP BY OUR BUSY REPORTERS.

The Spice Of Every Day Life—What The People are Talking About—Nothing Escapes Attention.

Another second-hand store, of large dimensions, has been opened on Prince street. Queen's dramatic club intend playing "Hamlet" in the Grand opera house within a month.

A new Williams typewriter has replaced the Remington, lately installed in the rooms of the board of education. The 14th regimental band is picking up again in membership. At the last practice over thirty members were present.

The steamer Pierpont yesterday made its last trip of the season to the public school, and this morning was placed in winter-quarters. The battery men were out on street parade this morning, and presented a neat and impressive appearance. The men wore their great coats and fur hats.

The public library has a lady subscriber who takes out two books every day. She probably begins at the last chapter, and also ends her reading at a book that is worthy notice. The mechanics' institute directors will petition the city council for a rebate of the rent for the city hall, used for concert purposes on behalf of an educational institution.

The school fees are now coming in very rapidly. The secretary of the board of education received half a peck of silver this morning, totalling over $300. It took him all day to count and count the coins. The dog, which will likely be shipped back to them, the regular annual meeting of the subscribers of the institute was fixed for 7 p.m. on Monday, Jan. 20th. One of the rooms has been, at a small rental, thrown open to the association of stationary engineers for meeting purposes.

Grand Opera House—Tuesday. Miss Julia Glaser is one of the most tastefully dressed of all stage women, and the fact that in her new opera, "Dolly Varden," she will display four new gowns, will doubtless attract many women to her performance at the opening of the new Grand opera house, in this city, on Tuesday evening, January 14th, to inspect her costumes. The dresses were designed by Miss Glaser, who is a dressmaker, and made by Mrs. Freisinger, the famous modiste.

Apart from the fact that Miss Glaser's dresses in "Dolly Varden" are most artistic creations, the additional fact that they are of a style in female fashionable dress that is just coming into vogue—the styles of Louis XV—makes them objects of interest to the leaders of fashion in this city. Besides it would be a difficult matter to display such triumphs of the dressmaker and milliner's art on a more comely creature than Miss Glaser.

Division Court.

Division court was adjourned last evening (Monday) to the 14th inst. Mr. Williams continued to hear the long docket of twenty-eight cases. These were disposed of: A. Williamson et al, for Tyner estate vs. J. Grimshaw et al, Account, $35. Adjudged. J. Hamilton vs. George Sears—Account, $247. Judgment for $13 and costs. J. Halligan vs. William O'Neil. Note and interest, $119.95. Adjudged to chambers.

A New Plant For Canada.

W. J. Arkell, of the American locomotive company, who has returned to New York from a trip in connection with the purchase of the Kingston locomotive works, which, however, was not consummated, says that while he failed at Kingston, he succeeded in getting Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, the president of the Grand Trunk railway, and Charles E. L. Porteous, Montreal, interested in building a new plant in Canada. He said he was not yet able to divulge the location of the works.

The Returns Of Wills.

The clerk of the surrogate court makes these returns for the year 1921, embracing Kingston and Frontenac: Probate—$57,575. Letters of administration, 47; letters of guardianship, 47; probates and letters issued not exceeding $400; probates and letters not exceeding $1,000, 167 total amount of personality devolving, $675,792. Total amount of realty devolving, $232,826. There were two wills above $100,000—two of W. R. McRae, $120,000, and Isaac Simpson, $225,000.

Officers Installed.

Court Earl Roberts, No. 4,265, I.O. F., met last night, when its officers were installed by district deputy H. H. Hunter. The list of officers has previously been published. At the close of the ceremony a banquet was held, at which chief ranger Gimblett presided in an efficient manner. A number of toasts were proposed and honored, and the annual event made a very enjoyable one.

The Annual Banquet.

The annual banquet of directors of the Kingston horticultural society took place last evening at the Coliseum hotel, the officers, board of directors and a few friends being present. Host Hunt served a tasty meal, which the guests much enjoyed. The usual toasts were honored.

New Uniforms Arrive.

The new uniforms for the Kingston bicycle club's hockey team, purchased from J. P. Forrest, have arrived, and are very tasty, attractive suits. They consist of a turtleneck sweater and cuffs of navy blue, with a blue stripe around the bottom. On the breast appears the club's emblem, the star and crescent.

Announcement.

Miss L. Daly's dancing class will resume on Friday night, January 14th, commencing throughout the season on Tuesdays and Fridays.

A DELIGHTFUL CONCERT.

Harold Jarvis, Tenor, Charmed The Large Audience.

A large audience greeted the Harold Jarvis concert company at the city hall last night, and was delightfully entertained with music and story. Mr. Jarvis, an eminent Canadian tenor, always gains in popularity, as he does in voice. His singing last night would have charmed even the uneducated, who could not have failed to appreciate the passion and pathos in his powerful, rich, sweet and clear voice of such remarkable compass. Probably the selection which found most favor was "The Death of Nelson," which Mr. Jarvis interprets so vividly. "Land Me Your Auld" (Gunsod) was also beautifully rendered.

Frank Blackford is a clever young violinist, and became popular with his hearers. He best rendered selection of five pieces, "Adagio" by Chopin. Owen Smyly was a capital entertainer, with remarkably versatile powers. His personations and sketches were clever, and won for him warm praises as well as applause. W. Spencer Jones was the able accompanist.

Public Library Directors.

The regular monthly meeting of the mechanics' institute board of directors took place yesterday afternoon. There were present, President McEwen, secretary Sliter, treasurer Macdonald, R. S. Dobbs, James Rodden, Dr. Murdoch, Dr. Isabel McEwen and Miss Davis. The librarian's monthly report showed the receipts to be $27.52. After the meeting the directors considered a balance of $54.32. It was moved by Rev. J. A. Macdonald, seconded by J. R. Dolbs, and resolved, that a vote of thanks be tendered to the executors of the Hood estate for their donation of valuable books. A large number of books, which Rev. J. A. Macdonald wished to have added to the library, were looked over, and accepted. The Copp, Clark company sent down, without waiting for a request to do so, a case of books, which will likely be shipped back to them. The regular annual meeting of the subscribers of the institute was fixed for 7 p.m. on Monday, Jan. 20th. One of the rooms has been, at a small rental, thrown open to the association of stationary engineers for meeting purposes.

The Students Registered.

Supplementary sittings of the manhood franchise registration courts were held yesterday and to-day. At the booth in the city buildings only three names were added, but at the collegiate institute nearly 100 more names were received. Many students applied, but notice of their absence at the first sitting, not having been handed in, their applications at the supplementary sittings had to be rejected.

To Reside In Winnipeg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Williams left today for Winnipeg, where they will in future reside. Until recently Mr. Williams was a traveller for George A. McEwan's cigar store. He has accepted a position in the same line in a Montreal firm, and will travel throughout the northwest, with headquarters on the prairie city. Their Kingston friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Williams success and happiness in their new western home.

The Sheriff Married.

The pleasing information was received in the city today of the marriage on Saturday, January 4th, in Buffalo, N.Y., of Robert J. Eilbeck, the popular half-wit of the York, and former Kingstonian, and Miss Lydia Mohr, Gubbishay. The sheriff is offered hearty congratulations on his nuptials. It is his purpose to resume his duties in Dawson City at an early date.

The Week Of Prayer.

Last night's meeting of the week of prayer was held in Cook's Presbyterian church. The attendance was good. Rev. D. Laing and T. F. Harrison, who were to have delivered the addresses of the evening, were absent, the former owing to ill-health and the latter because of a previous engagement. Their places were taken by Rev. Alexander Laird, who spoke on character, what it is and how it is formed; and by F. G. Lockart, who spoke very interestingly on the opportunities laymen-men have of exhibiting christian character. The addresses were short, but effective. To-night the annual meeting of the bible society takes place in Queen street Methodist church.

Faults Of Tall Men.

As a rule tall men have bodies out of proportion to their lower limbs; that is, smaller than they ought to be—with the natural result that they are unable to bear fatigue, or to compete in the struggles of life with less-developed men more harmoniously proportioned. Army experiences and observations in a long and fatiguing march the tall men often fall out first, or succumb to camp-sickness, unless, as is very rarely the case, they have a well-knit and symmetrical frame. A soldier between five feet five inches and five feet eight inches or taller, who is usually the man most capable of bearing the strain of life.

FULL PARTICULARS GIVEN ABOUT THE CHURCH FIRE AT VERONA.

Two Young Ladies Badly Burned—A Happy Celebration—Laird O' Glenburnie to Appear.

Verona, Jan. 8.—At the close of the public service in the Free Methodist church, Sunday evening, as the minister invited the congregation to stand and sing an invitation hymn, George Kitchin came in contact with a large Rochester lamp, near the middle of the church. The lamp fell to the floor and in a moment the flames mounted high. The large congregation became panic-stricken and rushed wildly toward the front and rear doors. The clothing of two young ladies caught fire, and they were badly burned. With some difficulty the flames were extinguished. Some of the congregation, especially women and children, fell in the rush for the doors, and were trampled upon; all escaped with slight bruises.

George Jeffrey jumped through a window, taking two children with him, minutes' hard labor. The church had been newly painted and kalsomined a few days previously. On Monday morning the walls and ceiling presented a blackened appearance and two centre seats will probably be ruined. Mr. Richard and Mr. Miller are holding revival services in this church.

The A.O.U.W. lodge will give their annual supper at the Temperance hotel, Saturday night. N. Stoddard, attending the observation of his aunt, Mrs. Riben Standman, Perth, Friday, returned home Monday. Mrs. George Bradshaw, Watertown, N.Y., is at her brother's, A. Wells, T. Shields, the popular station agent, who was successful at the recent civil service examinations. L. Hamilton, ex-teacher, was successful at the normal school examinations and has obtained a position.

Mrs. A. J. Johnston, Mrs. R. Davidson, and Miss Watson, University avenue, Kingston, were with other friends at Bay View, Fourteen Island lake, New Year's day, and participated in celebrating the eighty-third birthday of their old and dear friend, William Abrams. They found him hale and enjoying the best of health, and from appearance bids fair to see many more birthdays. After partaking of a sumptuous repast, the party settled down to relate some pleasant stories and reminiscences of by-gone days. In the evening an impromptu concert was arranged and each one presented to the entertainment. Old-time melodies were sung and recitations that were quaint and old were called for and responded to. Mr. Brown, teacher, was present and gave two selections. The singing of "Auld Lang Syne" brought the concert to a close. At the conclusion of the concert oranges, cake and wine were served, toast given and responded to, and after wishing their old friends many happy returns the party departed, each one expressing regret at having met at their happy New Year's day. The party from Kingston returned to the old limestone city on Friday.

Invitations are out for a supper party at the residence of William Craig, Thursday evening, to celebrate the home-coming of their son, Coleman, and bride, from Essex Centre, Michigan. William Craig, the laird of Glenburnie, will be present and give some popular airs on the violin. Norman Hicks, residing here a number of years ago, but now of Alberta, where he has been residing for a few years, and where he has prospered, visited friends here last week.

CHASED BY WOLVES.

Thrilling Experience Of Dr. Giles, Of Halliburton. Pseudonym. Wolves are reported to be numerous in the north country this year, and several have been seen within a short distance of Halliburton, Ont. and in the vicinity of Dr. Giles, of Halliburton, and little daughter, had a narrow escape of being devoured by these vicious animals one day last week.

The doctor was summoned to Wilberforce, and when he had finished to take long trips at night he usually takes one of his family for company. The distance from one village to the other is about twenty miles, and the road traverses a dense forest, the only way getting whatever on the line. When the doctor was within a few miles of Wilberforce, he heard wolves howling, and looking back he saw a pack coming towards him. He immediately jumped into his car, and reached the village before the pack could come up with him.

It is reported that a large timber wolf was seen crossing the Burnt river at Kilmount, near Mr. Mansfield's residence, recently.

The Sheriff Married.

Five Dollars a Box.

The Price Cut No Figure With Him.

"I want to say for the benefit of some poor dyspeptic that Stuart's Digestive Tablets will give comfort and a cure every time. Five dollars a box would not stop me purchasing them; about five or six more I had for a week before using them. The 50 cent box I bought at my druggist's had the work, and my digestion is all right again."

"Many of my neighbors have also tried Stuart's Tablets and found them to be just as good as I found them to be. I am a doctor, and I can tell you that Stuart's Tablets will cure any case of indigestion, flatulence, or any other ailment connected with the stomach. I have used them myself, and I can tell you that they are worth every cent of the price. I have used them for many years, and I can tell you that they are worth every cent of the price. I have used them for many years, and I can tell you that they are worth every cent of the price."

"I thought I would try a box of Stuart's Digestive Tablets and see if they would make me feel better, never really thinking I had dyspepsia, but after only three or four tablets had been taken all the acid trouble disappeared and then I discovered I had had stomach trouble, while the doctors had been treating me for kidney and bladder trouble, and all of them treated me for rheumatism."

"My digestion is fine, my complexion clear, and I am able to do my work and my spirits are unbroken. I am so glad to find a cure so good and so pleasant to take as Stuart's Digestive Tablets. I can tell you that they are worth every cent of the price. I have used them for many years, and I can tell you that they are worth every cent of the price."
