THE BIBLE SOCIETY MEETS.

ADDRESSES BY REV. DR. PHILP AND PROF. PIKE.

The Kingston Branch Behind In The Work—Reports Received—A Plea For The Freer Use Of The Bible In School And Church.

The annual meeting of the bible society was held in Queen street Methodist church last evening. The address was well filled by a cosmopolitan congregation.

The president returned thanks for the honor of having been placed at the head of the local branch of the British and foreign bible society.

George Mills, secretary, read the annual report which covered the ground very exhaustively. He referred to the death of Queen Victoria, and her love and reverence for the bible.

The chief speakers of the evening were Rev. Dr. Philp, of St. Andrew's Methodist church, and Prof. Pike, the new professor of Latin in Queen's college.

Prof. Pike, in rising, paid a tribute to the eloquent words of Dr. Philp. "The future of the bible in Christendom" was his subject.

Prof. Pike, in rising, paid a tribute to the eloquent words of Dr. Philp. "The future of the bible in Christendom" was his subject.

With delicacy and care the speaker approached the question of the bible's relation to the day-school. He could not speak of Ontario schools, but in England the study of the bible in the day-school did more harm than good.
