IN THE RELIGIOUS WORLD.

REV. DR. E. R. MACLAREN MAY BE APPOINTED

To Succeed Rev. Dr. Robertson—Boston Has Many Protestant Churches—Roman Catholic Paper Concedes the Advance of Protestantism.

A young people's society has been formed in connection with the Church of England at Paris.

A new brick church with a seating capacity of 300 is to be erected at Berlin by the Mennonites.

Rev. Dr. Bayne has completed his fourteenth year as pastor of Calvin Presbyterian church, Pembroke.

Rev. C. W. Hodley reports that the depression at Roseland, prevents a new Anglican church being built there.

Plans have just been drawn for a new church in Glasgow, Scotland, in which all the services are to be in Gaelic.

Rev. R. Whillans, Presbyterian minister at Campbell's Bay and Bryson, has resigned, owing to an affection of the throat.

Rev. W. T. Morrison, Bordeaux, Que., will receive a call from the congregation of St. John's Presbyterian church, St. John, N.B.

There is in Japan a scripture union, members of which now number 10,000, who agree to read a specified portion of the bible every day in the year.

Rev. C. G. Rollit, assistant minister at the church of St. James the Apostle, has been invited to the rectorship of Trinity church, Montreal.

Rev. R. L. Halliway, St. Andrews, Que., was presented by his congregation with a purse of money and Mrs. Halliway with a fur coat.

Rev. P. T. Ryan, Renfrew, was presented with a magnificent pair of musk ox robes, a coon coat and other articles, amounting in all to about $170, by his parishioners.

Rev. James Lawson, Addison, has returned from his trip to England and Ireland, and restored to his usual health. Mr. Lawson was accorded a most hearty welcome in his native England.

Rev. Dr. Roland D. Grant, pastor of the First Baptist church of Vancouver, has been approached to accept the pastorate of Tremont Temple, of Boston. The membership is 2,000. Dr. Grant is not inclined to leave Vancouver.

Bishop Thoburn, of India, makes this striking statement, in discussing methods and principles of evangelistic work in heathen lands: "I have not preached against idolatry, so far as I know, for twenty years. I have not the time to do so. I am there to preach Christ."

Probably, says the Canadian Baptist, there is no other city of the size of Boston that is so well supplied with Protestant places of worship. It is said that if all the Protestants of Boston were at church on any Sunday there would still be as many as 21,023 empty seats.

Congregationalists are puzzled over the situation in their theological seminaries. A few years ago they were crowded with students; now, it is stated, by the Advance that in the nine theological seminaries there are 1,000 empty seats.

The exchange of pulpits to-morrow is: Chalmers, Rev. Dr. Philip St. Andrew's; Rev. Dr. Antiff; Cooke's, Rev. T. Brown; Zion, Rev. E. Crumney; Sydenham, Rev. D. Laing; Queen street, Rev. Dr. Richardson; Brook street, Rev. M. McGillivray; Princes street, Rev. T. Leggett; First Congregational church, Rev. John Mackie; Calvary, a supply from Queen's; First Baptist church, T. C. Brown, Queen's.

In Presbyterian church circles considerable interest is attached to the appointment of a successor to the late Rev. Dr. Robertson, as superintendent of missions in Manitoba and the north-west. It is almost certain that the position will go to a western man, and Rev. Dr. E. B. MacLaren, of Vancouver, B.C., a most aggressive man, seems to be the favorite at the present moment. Dr. MacLaren is a product of Queen's.

The Via Catholique, a prominent organ of the Roman church, concedes that Protestantism has far outstripped its own church in missionary zeal. It states that Catholic missions of all Christendom have received an annual income for the last seventy-five years of only about $800,000, while at the present time Protestants are giving annually for the evangelization of the world as much as $15,000,000, while in the last hundred years Protestantism on mission fields has increased from 70,000 to 4,000,000.

Sunday Services.

Queen's Play a Draw Match At Pittsburg, Pa.

There is talk in England of bringing over Jeffries and Fitzsimmons to fight a battle.

Napanee curling club has asked Kingston to arrange dates with Rockwood for the Quinte district matches.

Varsity vs. Wellingtons in Toronto; Shamrocks vs. Ottawas, in Montreal.

No less than 47,000 persons attended a football match in England recently, which surpasses the record, but as the price of admission was small, the sum of $6,000 only was realized.

Queen's hockey team played the Bankers, the leading team in the Western Pennsylvania league, at Pittsburg, Pa., Friday night.

The first match for the Ontario curling tankard takes place between Kingston and Bowmanville at Cobourg next Thursday. Col. Drury and W. B. Dalton will be the Kingston skips.

W. Watson fancies that his team can hold its own with the O.H.A. champions, and if the Wellingtons would consent to a match the W.O.H.A. team promises to make it interesting for the Iron Dukes.

The umbrella and cane, donated by J. P. Forest and Fred Hanley, respectively, to the winners in the late pool contest at the bicycle club rooms, were won by Chas. Seaton and John Terry, in the order named.

Brookville curlers want the use of the Kingston rink next Friday night to play a Belleville team. The rink is being used on that night by the Kingston club which will give the visitors either Thursday or Saturday night.

Balant Island, a little patch of land in Put-in-Bay, lake Erie, has been selected as a summer camp by the western division of the American canoe association. The rendezvous this year will take place in the latter part of July.

Queen's hockey team would have given the Pittsburg athletic team a worse trimming than 2 to 1, had Merrill been in the game. But the clever cover-point was unable to play, having sustained an injury on the ice the night before.

The Toronto Telegram intimates that 'Varsity will have something to say about the intercollegiate championship of America which Queen's holds. A long time ago, Queen's sent the Toronto university hockey team away back to sit down, and it has been unheard of since. Let the Telegram watch the all-Montreal combination McGill will bring to Kingston.

The second game of the Quinte league was played in Napanee last night between the team of that place and the Ramblers, the Napaneeans winning out with a score of seven to three. The Ramblers were badly equipped, being without their captain and point, but put up a gamey fight throughout, doing all their scoring in the first half.

The Napaneeans welcomed the visiting team and placed the puck at the start. James Sutherland refereed the game, giving entire satisfaction.

There are at the present time four English towns which own their race courses, but the one that can give points and a hearing to all the other three combined is Doncaster. The actual profits from the course, which go to relieve the rates, average over £10,000 a year. Ever since 1703 Doncaster's races have been famous. But the racing capital of England is unquestionably Newmarket. On the wide, expansive heath there are no fewer than ten different courses, the longest of which is four miles and a quarter round. Newmarket was racing in 1605, before Epson was on the head of a horse.

More than half Newmarket's male population are trainers, jockeys, or stablemen and boys, and no stranger could ever mistake the place for anything else but a racing-centre.

These are the places where glove fighting is now permitted: San Francisco (twenty rounds), Detroit (fifteen rounds), St. Louis (fifteen rounds), Chicago (six rounds in private clubs), Louisville (twenty-five rounds), Omaha (fifteen rounds), Kansas City (twenty rounds), Hartford and Waterbury, Conn. (twenty rounds), Denver, Col. (ten rounds), Oshkosh and Appleton, Wis. (eight rounds), Memphis (no limit), Milwaukee (six rounds), Buffalo (Port Erie, that, twenty rounds), Savannah, Ga. (twenty rounds), Toronto, Ont. (twenty rounds), Cincinnati (ten rounds), Trenton, N.J. (twenty rounds), Philadelphia (six rounds, no decisions), Hot Springs, Ark. (twenty rounds), Washington, Va. (twenty rounds), Baltimore, Md. (twenty rounds), Lowell, Mass. (fifteen rounds).

Curling Matches.

The outcome of yesterday afternoon's curling matches at the Kingston rink resulted thus: Rink No. 1—Capt. Leslie, Dr. Waugh, Lieut.-Col. Ogilvie, Col. Drury, skip—11.

Rink No. 1—J. A. Minnes, W. H. Dalby, E. Lyons, A. Strachan, skip—17.

Rink No. 2—F. Conway, W. F. Webster, L. L. Henderson, W. B. Dalton, skip—26.

Rink No. 2—H. P. Smith, George E. Hague, Dr. Knight, Prof. Watson, skip—17.

Other matches will be played to-night instead of on Tuesday.

THIS JANUARY CLEARING SALE

Is a bonanza to buyers who are ready to take advantage of reduced prices on strictly reliable goods. Every day we're offering many special lines. It's worth your while to look about and see what's to be seen. We said at the beginning of this sale that we were going to lift January trade out of the usual rut, and we are doing it. Did you ever see or hear of as many claims being put before you for patronage as are being done these days? Who started it? We did, and we lead in value-giving just as we lead in originating new ideas for others to fall in line with. Patronize the originators. Give us credit for bringing lower prices to you.
