AFTER MEASLES AND SCARLET FEVER

IT MAKES PUNY CHILDREN STRONG AND ROBUST

Angier's Petroleum Emulsion, physicians say, is the best remedy for all sorts of Wasting and has practically no taste, and no odor. Besides it has a pleasant, soothing, healing and cleansing action on the stomach and bowels. After measles or scarlet fever a tonic is is by far the best, because it not only promotes a healthy appetite, aids digestion, and builds up the child's health and strength, but it also soothes the lungs and air passages, relieving the cough, which is such a frequent symptom, and preventing lung complications.

·For scrofulous children it is certainly without an equal in promoting nutrition and building
