A REPLY FROM GRADUATE. UNIVERSITY JOURNAL'S EDITORIAL DISCUSSED.

Misrepresentation and Abuse Reported—Where the Clique Gets in Its Work—Against Importations—Canadiana Good Enough.

Kingston, Jan. 22.—(To the Editor): I noticed that a recent number of the Queen's University Journal contained a scathing editorial in criticism of a letter written by "Graduate" to the Whig, a considerable time ago.

By referring to "Graduate's" letter as having appeared "recently" and by using the word "scathing" in discussing some of the new appointments, the staff said that the candidates were the choice of one or two scheming individuals connected with the college.

As for the "relative merits of importations and home talent," the best teacher of classics, that Queen's has had, have been Canadiana, a graduate of Queen's and a graduate of Toronto.

During October the sale of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Lissed and Turpentine exceeded by several hundred bottles the record of any previous month in its history.

January is a sorrowful month for our royal family. Almost exactly a year previous to the death of our late beloved queen, on January 21st, 1900.

On the 12th of January, 1901, I took an attack of La Grippe, so bad that I really thought there was no more for me.
