SECOND COMING OF CHRIST.

A CRITICISM OF BISHOP MILLS' SERMON.

A Writer Says it's No Wonder That Men Proclaim Their Unbelief When Ministers Make God a Liar.

Hamilton, North Dakota, Feb. 27. (To the Editor) C. H. Asselstine, an subscriber to the Weekly British Whig handed me a copy of it containing a sermon on the second coming of Christ, given by the bishop of Ontario in St. James' church. He based his remarks on part of the 12th verse of the xxii. chapter of Revelations.

Having done this I find that these latter day teachings concerning the second coming of Christ as yet to be are nothing but a bugaboo doctrine, which belongs to the flat earth period and is not written in the gospel, but is a blindness born of denomination.

The religion and doctrine of Jesus which he dealt with as bishop Mills stated, saying there were three meanings that might be applied to the text.
