REFORMERS IN SESSION. Annual Meeting of the Kingston Association.

MADE A STIRRING ADDRESS. ALL THE OLD OFFICERS WERE RE-ELECTED.

Resolutions of Confidence Passed. In The Laurier and Ross Administrations—Congratulating Mr. Penne—The Party is United.

No stronger proof could be desired of the unity and harmony existing in the reform party than the enthusiasm manifested at the annual meeting.

This being the first gathering of the liberals since Mr. Penne's election, J. M. Farrell took pleasure in moving a resolution of congratulation.

That at this, our first meeting since the election of Mr. Penne to the legislative assembly, we desire to heartily congratulate him on the confidence and esteem in which he is held by the citizens.

James McParland seconded the resolution with much pleasure, heartily endorsing all the resolutions.

Regarding his work in the legislature, he hoped soon to be working kind and settle down to work in earnest Ontario.

The members have the felicitous confidence in their leader. Never were a set of minutes passed that have not been so much more than those just put through.

Helped Kingston Well. Touching the grants to Kingston institutions, the only objection raised was by an agriculturalist, who said he thought the Kingston dairy school was not doing the work it was capable of doing.

In closing the speaker said he would continue in the future as in the past to work for Kingston's best interests.

At this annual meeting of the Kingston reform association we desire to renew our expression of confidence in the Ontario government.
