The expenditure of the imperial war office through the agriculture department for these products, including transportation, etc., has been four million dollars, and by the time the contracts now in hand have been completed, the amount will have been increased to seven millions.

The dominion government has extended the contract with the American bank note company for the printing of bank notes, stamps, etc., for another five years.

THE TALK OF LONDON. Is Lord Rosebery's Latest Fling

At Liberals. London, Feb. 22.-The press is absorted with the bombshell that lord

Rosebery has dropped into the liberal camp. The comments are copious; and are what were to be expected according to the tenets of the individual papers. The Daily News and other papers supporting Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman try to meet the incident with smiling indifference.
