Omega Oil

THROAT AND CHEST—The doctors have all sorts of names for the same in character after all. Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Pleurisy, Asthma and similar troubles are more or less related, and whatever is good for one is good for the others. Omega Oil accomplishes wonderful things in troubles of the breathing organs. The beauty of it is that you can rub it in from the outside, and run no risk of swallowing or inhaling drugs that may cause internal troubles or injure the digestion. It is a limit in that it softens, loosens, heals, allays inflammation, and brings about relief as nothing else ever did before. The weather is so changeable and dangerous that Omega Oil has come to be looked upon as a remedy that no one can ignore.

FINANCE COMMITTEE TO PROVIDE FOR THE INCREASE.
Business Transacted At Last Night's Meeting of The Council—Reports of Committees—To Petition The Lieutenant-Governor.
Last night's meeting of the city council attracted a large number of spectators, the large hall was filled with the members of the press, and the members of the public. The council was called to order by Mayor Shaw, who presided over the meeting. The first item of business was the report of the finance committee, which was presented by Ald. Carson. The report dealt with the proposed increase in the city's revenue, and the council was asked to approve the same. The council then turned to the report of the committee on the proposed grading system, which was presented by Ald. Carson. The council was asked to approve the same, and it did so by a large majority.

Petitions Presented.
Ald. Carson—David Vick and others, asking for repairs to Harris street north—Board of works.
Ald. Craig—Selby & Youden, asking that assessment on the Kingston fire association, asking for usual grant on the same ground governing the grant of last year—Finance committee.

Report of Finance Committee.
Ald. Walker presented the report of the finance committee, recommending the payment of these accounts: W. M. Baillie, $14.95; the Rathbun Co., $3; John Hauer, $2; Bell Telephone Co., $6.75; W. G. Kemp, $3.04; E. Staley, $12.75; Lawrence, $29.99; Bell Telephone Co., $26; labor pay list, board of works, $158.48; Grant & Carter, $87.25; G. N. W. Telegraph Co., $2c; J. P.
