Mr. Irvine, Anglican union and marketing of eggs, and other public did not always insist, as is thought, on an entire separation of the hatched and the un-hatched eggs, but is now marketing eggs and the stale articles. Canadians should note the begonia of this new agitation, which purports to grow until good eggs, guaranteed by both producer and original taster, shall alone be offered for sale. The egg, and will always be paid for. Our trouble now is, as the complaint in Great Britain, sick eggs, gathering in far too often of Mrs. on haphazard, and fresh laid, which should always be for sale at a creative price, are lumped together with eggs laid away and set, or set, and sold. This is a most objectionable cause of complaint to the buyer, and the whole lot, as a result, is sold at a low price, and it is a pity that we require, if it could be so, a means whereby the honest producer could have full value for what he sells, and the consumer, saved from causing unwarranted taxation to the consuming public.

At Plymna, Kan., a "joint" cornered the Rev. W. H. House the past week, and informed several gentlemen that he was a lying-on account of a temperance sermon which he had preached before. "All right," responded the parson, "but it is not until the friends of the 'joint' were taking him down to the other shop for the application of a stick to a pair of beautiful parson's cheeks." The parson's cheeks were not touched, but the parson was deceived. A. WATER, M.D. Homeopathic Physician. Our citizens are awaiting with an interest the coming local case. A series of revival meetings will shortly be commenced in the village. One of our aged veterans confidently predicts a very early spring. In his former predictions he has always been successful, and this year he claims will not be an exception. the evening. Rev. Buckler dealt with the temperance question and explained fully the referendum. Rev. Jenkins, Canada East, spoke on the same subject also. Dr. Edwards, Kingston, made a brilliant speech dealing with Canada's progress in the past, its vast settling territory and its possibilities in the future. F. S. Wattman, of this place, fluently delivered a very interesting and patriotic speech also. The musical part of the programme was very much appreciated. Mr. Jenkins delighted all with his solos, gratifying responses to answers. Mr. Cambridge, Yarker, gave a couple of solos also. Those rendered by Misses Warner and Jackson were highly appreciated. Leacock's house, Dulcaine, narrowly escaped being burned on Monday evening. Fire had caught in the roof, but was quickly extinguished to prevent anything more serious than a hole in the roof. Rev. D. Anderson, of the Holiness movement, has been called to an appointment in the city of Montreal. He started for the city on Tuesday. Mr. Anderson has been on this circuit for quite a long time and the news of his departure was received with deepest regret by all, for he is a bright and cheerful young fellow, and an earnest christian worker, giving offence to no denomination. He has won for himself many warm, honest friends during his stay among the people of this vicinity, who will gladly welcome him back, should he ever be returned to this circuit. We understand his successor is a Mr. Clark, Manitoba. C. N. Vanderburg returned home on Monday after a few days pleasantly spent with friends at Seely's Bay.

A RELIABLE OFFER.

Honest Help Free To Men. We are authorized to state by Carl Kunz, Second and Brady streets, Deseronto, Iowa, that any man who is nervous and debilitated or who is suffering from any of the various troubles resulting from overwork, excess or abuse, such as nervous debility, exhausted vitality, loss of vigor, unsustained drains and losses, lack of development, etc., can write to him in strict confidence and receive FREE OF CHARGE, full instructions how to be thoroughly cured. Mr. Kunz himself was, for a long time, a sufferer from above troubles, and after trying in vain many advertised remedies, became almost entirely discouraged and hopeless. But he is confident in an old clergyman, whose kind and honest advice enabled him to speedily obtain a perfect and permanent cure. Knowing by his own sorrow that so many poor sufferers are being imposed upon by unscrupulous quacks, Mr. Kunz considers it his duty, as an honest man, to give his fellow men the benefit of his experience and assist to a cure. Having nothing to sell, he asks for no money, the proud satisfaction of having done a great service to one in need, he rightly considers an ample reward for his trouble. If you write to Mr. Kunz, and follow his advice, you can rely upon being cured and upon absolute secrecy as well. Address as above, enclosing a stamp. No attention will be given to those writing out of idle curiosity, therefore state that you really need a cure.
