Lydia Lepard, of Holt, Ont., Trics the New System of Curing People With Marvelous Success.

I have been a sufferer for about five years from stomach trouble. My stomach was so weak that I could not eat enough to keep my strength up, and at last got so weak that I had to take to bed. I was treated by three of the best dectors, but could get no relief. I had taken all kinds of patent medicine and drugs, but conidn't get relief that way. I com-menced taking Ozone because I believed that drugs couldn't cure me, and I wanted to try this natural method. A Sad Letter from a Lady Whose Husband Was Dissipated.

How She Cured Him With a Secret

"I had for years patiently borne the disgrace, suffering, misery and privations dus to my husband's drinking habits. Hearing of your marvelous remedy for the cura of drunkenness, which I could give my husband secretly, I decided to try it. I procured a package and mixed it in his food and coffee, and, as the remedy was what it was that so quickly relieved his craving for liquor. He soon began to pick up flesh, his appetite for solid food returned, he stuck to his work regularly, and priest would not get a night's lodgwe now have a happy home. After he was completely cured I told him what I ad done, when he acknowledged that it res lution to break off of his own accord. I heartily advise all women afflicted as I Might Prevent Runaways. A Toronto man, who has been ston, stated yesterday that this was the liveliest town for rungways that he ever saw. "Why," he said, "you see more runaways here in a week than you would in Toronto in three months. There if a man leaves a horse untied while he enters a store, he is no sooner in the building than a policeman accosts him, asking his name and address and sharply reprimes ding him. In nine cases out of ten the man will have to appear before the rollce magistrate next morning and answer the charge. A by-law compels every driver to secure his horse before lenving it. The law is strictly enforced, and there is in consequence few run aways. I notice that police here pay no attention to such matters, though am told that there is a similar bylaw in Kingston.
