SENSATION IN HAMILTON.

RECOVERY OF JESSIE MUNRO MUCH COMMENTED UPON.

From Tuberculosis Of The Bowels - Cured By Ozone Method.

Mail and Express, March 1, 1902. The Hamiltonian who were conversant with the case of Jesse Munro, a well-known citizen residing at 115 Ferguson Avenue, are greatly interested in his complete recovery from tuberculosis of the bowels together with an affected stomach, by means of the liquidized ozone, prepared by Powley's Liquefied Ozone.

Mr. Munro's condition at one time was considered so extremely critical that it was deemed advisable to remove diseased portions of the bowels to give him a fighting chance of recovery.

Mr. Munro, 115 Ferguson Avenue, of the City of Hamilton, in the county of Wentworth, is the subject of the following sworn statement, giving a concise history of his case.

I, Jesse Munro, 115 Ferguson Avenue, of the City of Hamilton, in the county of Wentworth, do solemnly declare that for the past seven years I have been ill and gradually growing worse, until during the last three years I had been unable to work, except a very little in the summer.

Do solemnly declare that for the past seven years I have been ill and gradually growing worse, until during the last three years I had been unable to work, except a very little in the summer.

Declared before me at the City of Hamilton, in the county of Wentworth, this 17th day of Dec., in the year of our Lord, 1901.

J. H. LONG, A Commissioner, etc. The following corroboratory affidavit was also made out:

I, Mary Durham, 115 Ferguson Avenue, of the City of Hamilton, in the County of Wentworth, widow:

Do solemnly declare that I personally know the case of Jesse Munro, of the City of Hamilton, moulder, and he has lived with me during the last two years. I have read the declaration of the said Jesse Munro, taken the 17th day of December, 1901, and corroborate and confirm all he has said therein.

Declared before me at the City of Hamilton, in the county of Wentworth, this 17th day of Dec., in the year of our Lord, 1901.

J. H. LONG, A Commissioner, etc. The case is considered most remarkable and many people are experiencing the benefit of the Ozone Treatment in the Ambitious City. The reporter was informed by many druggists that Powley's Liquefied Ozone had the most extensive sale of any preparation handled by them.

THE LATE JOSHUA SMITH.

He Was a Resident in Kingston In Early Days.

Joshua Smith, who for the past two generations has been a familiar figure in Ganoanque, died at a residence in Ganoanque, on Thursday evening, aged seventy-seven years and eight months.

Deceased was eldest son of the late Joshua Smith, for many years a well known farmer of Leeds. He was born at Avon, England, July 3rd, 1824, and came to Canada with his father about 1836. They came by way of Montreal, and then by batteau to Kingston, where they remained a few months when Mr. Smith, senior, took up a bush farm in Pittsburg. Later he returned to Kingston and was employed as a gardener.

Mr. Smith, senior, died in 1872, and his son, Joshua, Jr., then he grew to manhood, learned the carpenter trade, and settled in Ganoanque, then a village. In 1846 he married Miss Emily Day, daughter of the late John Day, of Lanawood. She died in November, 1852.

His family consisted of one son and four daughters, besides several who died very young. The son, Daniel Smith, is employed in the axle shop, where he has worked for over thirty years.

Three of the daughters married three brothers, Byron and William T. Smith, and the youngest daughter married John Lloyd. All live in Ganoanque except Mrs. George D. Smith, whose home is at Larendon, Frontenac county.

Since the death of his wife he has resided with his daughter, Mrs. W. T. Dustin. Lately he has been in his usual health, till last Wednesday afternoon, when he came up town and was taken with a kind of colic, which turned to inflammation of the bowels, with loss of appetite. His family now but two are left William Smith, Leeds, and Mrs. Noah Bertram, Canogo, N.Y.

THE LATE MRS. MACLEAN.

A Princess Of Israel Has Passed Away.

Belleville Intelligencer. By Mrs. Maclean's death Belleville loses an estimable woman, who has always excelled in her industry in every good work throughout her life, she having been at one time president of the W.C.A., and one of the founders of the hospital, but more especially in her energy and ability manifested in her faithfulness to St. Andrew's congregation. A warm favorite with young and old, fully alive to the requirements of every department of church work, and impelled by an unquenchable light work, she was a powerful influence for all that is good and uplifting to humanity. To her may truly be applied the scriptural endorsement, "She hath done what she could."

The late Mrs. Maclean was born in Kingston, being the eldest daughter of the late ex-mayor Davidson, of that city, and was a sister of Mrs. (Alderman) Craig, also of the limestone city.

In addition to the sorrowing husband, three children are left to mourn her loss. They are John Carruthers Maclean, now stationed with his regiment at Halifax; Malcolm John Maclean, Deseronto; and Mrs. Balmori of London, England. They are all at present in Belleville.

Decided before me at the City of Hamilton, in the county of Wentworth, this 17th day of Dec., in the year of our Lord, 1901.

J. H. LONG, A Commissioner, etc. The following corroboratory affidavit was also made out:

A Prevailing Scourge. The "Blighting White Plague." How Catarrh Does Its Deadly Work.

It is just the same old story of exposure to cold. The neglected cold becoming chronic catarrh, which is the real cause of the disease. The lungs are inflamed, the mucous membrane is thickened, and the bronchial tubes are narrowed. The result is a chronic cough, which is the first symptom of the disease. The cough is at first dry, but soon becomes productive of mucus. The mucus is at first thin and watery, but soon becomes thick and yellowish. The cough is at first intermittent, but soon becomes constant. The patient is at first only annoyed, but soon becomes debilitated. The disease is at first only a nuisance, but soon becomes a scourge. Denbigh Doings. Denbigh, March 8.—The heavy thaw and rain of last week seriously interfered with the operations of our local jobbers, nearly all of whom have large amounts of logs or other timber yet in the bush. Some of them have already broken up camp while a few are working yet with a reduced gang of men. Hardly any of them will make much of a fortune working in the bush this winter, and some are sure to come out on the wrong side of the ledger on settlement day, as owing to the great depth of snow and prevailing stormy weather during a large part of the winter, the cost of getting the stuff out has been unusually heavy. Among the few who are rejoicing to see the early break up, is K. Petzold, who has now abundance of water to run his new roller mill, which has been partly idle for some time for want of sufficient motive power. John S. Lane has purchased a new portable saw mill and steam engine. R. Head, of Cloyne, has the contract to move the machinery from Kaladar Station to his village. Mr. Head has also the job of drawing the remainder of a car load of brick for J. S. Lane's new house from Kaladar station. The venture of getting a portable mill ought to prove a remunerative one for Mr. Lane, and will certainly be an advantage to many settlers in this part of the country as our present saw mills have lately not been able to supply the yearly increasing local demand for suitable building material. Thomas Lindsay has purchased from A. Stein, agent for J. Burn Doig, London, England, 300 acres of land, comprising the Abinger property of the late Dr. Charles D. Doig. A. Wensley, teacher in S.S. No. 6, held his 100 acre farm in the Thompson settlement, to his brother-in-law, Robert Thompson. Cyrus Kenyon sold his farm near White Lake, to Oscar Rutlan. T. E. Ewen has for some time been in his usual temporary quarters, the Chintoon house. We are pleased to see Rev. C. W. Barrett back again after an absence of five or six weeks.

Mississippi Locals. Mississippi, March 11.—Mr. and Mrs. C. Hentz, of Chamont, N.Y., and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hamilton, visited at their father's, N. Clark, last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Allan returned from Kingston last Friday, where Mr. Allan received medical treatment. The couple were very sorry to lose a good neighbor and citizen, by the removal of J. A. McDougald to Snow Road, where he takes a partnership with William Lee in the general store business in place of John Lee, who is now known as McDougald & Lee. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Allan made a flying visit to Herron's Mills this week. The Royal Templars held an open concert February 22nd. A good programme was given. The special lecture was the drawing for the beautiful autograph quilt, made by the ladies of the order. The successful one was Thelma Miller, Snow Road. Mr. and Mrs. E. Margaret, Harper, visited their parents for a week. The ten meeting in Snow Road church Friday proved a success, realizing $17.00. Miss Annie Young, Zealand, is spending a few days at I. Allan's. E. McConnell and sister, Elphie, visited at I. Allan's last week.

On Friday William Grant, an old and highly respected citizen, died, having been a terrible sufferer for some time. The funeral took place in the Methodist church on Saturday. Another esteemed resident died on Saturday in the person of Mrs. Isaac Robeson, Wiltsie street. The deceased had been since last fall a patient sufferer from an attack of paralysis. The funeral took place in the Methodist church on Sunday, services being conducted by Rev. Reynolds. Her sorrowing husband is very ill and confined to his bed. Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Ellis, of Athens, are spending a "Lost Her" party to some thirty of their young friends on Friday evening in their spacious parlor. A local orchestra furnished choice music during the evening, and Miss Maude Addison gave several choice selections of music which were well received. Miss Lillie Blackburn is spending a few holidays with her mother on Church street. Lyman E. Patterson, Rockport, spent Friday in town. Horse buyers from Smith's Falls, are to be in town on Wednesday purchasing horses for the war market. Frank Wiltsie, Brockville, spent Sunday at his home here. Our new mail man, Z. Sliter, is a hustler, delivering our Brockville mail about one hour earlier each day than we have been accustomed to for years past. The women's auxiliary of the Methodist church held their monthly meeting at tea at the residence of C. Alguire on Thursday. Miss Laura Bullis, Brockville, spent Sunday at her home here. In all probability there will be a great scarcity of wood in Athens, owing to the recent thaw and bad roads. Miss Annie Ross, very ill for some time, is reported better. John R. Joynt, New Boyne, was in town Friday visiting his mother, Robert Joynt, who is very ill at the home of Dr. Peat. Amos Blanchard has reopened his meat shop in the Dowley block.

Budget From Athens. Athens, March 10.—One by one our old residents have been dropping off this winter. On Friday William Grant, an old and highly respected citizen, died, having been a terrible sufferer for some time. The funeral took place in the Methodist church on Saturday. Another esteemed resident died on Saturday in the person of Mrs. Isaac Robeson, Wiltsie street. The deceased had been since last fall a patient sufferer from an attack of paralysis. The funeral took place in the Methodist church on Sunday, services being conducted by Rev. Reynolds. Her sorrowing husband is very ill and confined to his bed. Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Ellis, of Athens, are spending a "Lost Her" party to some thirty of their young friends on Friday evening in their spacious parlor. A local orchestra furnished choice music during the evening, and Miss Maude Addison gave several choice selections of music which were well received. Miss Lillie Blackburn is spending a few holidays with her mother on Church street. Lyman E. Patterson, Rockport, spent Friday in town. Horse buyers from Smith's Falls, are to be in town on Wednesday purchasing horses for the war market. Frank Wiltsie, Brockville, spent Sunday at his home here. Our new mail man, Z. Sliter, is a hustler, delivering our Brockville mail about one hour earlier each day than we have been accustomed to for years past. The women's auxiliary of the Methodist church held their monthly meeting at tea at the residence of C. Alguire on Thursday. Miss Laura Bullis, Brockville, spent Sunday at her home here. In all probability there will be a great scarcity of wood in Athens, owing to the recent thaw and bad roads. Miss Annie Ross, very ill for some time, is reported better. John R. Joynt, New Boyne, was in town Friday visiting his mother, Robert Joynt, who is very ill at the home of Dr. Peat. Amos Blanchard has reopened his meat shop in the Dowley block.
