WHEAT BLOCKADE

Western , Members Submit Their Complaints

Ottawa, March 11.-The members wore the edges off the phrases "enor mous crop," "the immense resources of the west," and "general prosper ity" in the house yesterday, but they could be excused from plagiarism since they brought forth the most interesting debate of the session. Rev moving for correspondence relative to the present wheat blockade in Manito ba. He followed his motion by a speech in explanation and then there was a series of speeches that lasted until 10:30 o'clock. The whole wheat question was well threshed out, and both sides were agreed that it was not the proper thing to have millions of bushels of grain awaiting shipcases being subject to adverse weather conditions. In some of speeches the question of east against west was' brought up, but in general the good of Canada as a whole was

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and R. L.
